C. GENERAL PROVISIONS

This part of this Agreement applies to all Accounts and Services.

- 1. Purpose. This paragraph applies only to Consumers. You agree and warrant to us that all Accounts and Services will be used solely for personal, family, or household purposes and that no Account or Service will be used for business or commercial purposes. You further agree not to use the Account in connection with any illegal activity, such as money laundering or fraud.

This paragraph applies only to Businesses. You agree and warrant to us that all Accounts and Services will be used solely for business or commercial purposes and that no Account or Service will be used for personal, family, or household purposes.

You further agree not to use the Account in connection with any illegal activity, such as money laundering or fraud.

- 2. Identification. To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents. If you are opening an account on behalf of a business entity, documents related to the business will also be requested. We may require you to present identification (acceptable to us in our sole discretion) when you are conducting transactions. These requirements apply to all persons who want to conduct transactions, including fiduciaries and agents-in-fact and beneficial owners of a business. Anyone who fails to provide acceptable identification information when requested will not be permitted to open an account, be added to an account, or continue to transact on an existing account.

If your account is funded before we verify your information, you may not have access to your account until verification is completed. If we are unable to verify your identity to our satisfaction, learn of any misrepresentations in any applications or other materials submitted to us, or if any information that you submit is called into question or we are unable to authenticate you or your identity, we may not open your account or we may close your account if previously opened. We may also prevent you from opening an account with us in the future.

- 3. Member Due Diligence. Financial institutions, including the Credit Union, must understand the nature and purpose of the accounts they serve and the expected activity associated with the accounts, for purposes of assessing risk. We will obtain information at account opening to understand what the normal and expected activity will be for the members we serve. This may include; employment, occupation, contact information, ID, beneficial owners (business members), type, size, and the frequency of transactions and more. This information may need to be updated periodically when new accounts, products, or services are entered into or when transactions change. You understand and agree that this is required and non-compliance can result in the suspension of services. Furthermore, you agree to keep the Credit Union informed of changes to ownership/beneficial ownership changes.
- 4. Notice. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any notice, request, or other communication required or permitted under this Agreement must be in writing and sent by certified or registered United States mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the address indicated below, unless another part of this Agreement specifically permits or requires you to give notice by telephone or fax:

Notice may be given at our discretion by mail, by e-mail (if you have provided appropriate consent), or by revising this Agreement and making it available in our branches. We will also mail you the most recent version of this Agreement upon your written request. Any notice that we mail is considered given 48 hours after we place it in the U.S. mail, postage-paid, for delivery to your address as shown on our records. If information about your Credit Union accounts or loans has been reported to a consumer reporting agency, and you believe the information is incorrect and would like to dispute it, you may complete and submit to us a Direct Dispute Form, which can be found online at www.nasafcu.com/forms. - 5. Information Changes; Consent to Receive Calls/Texts. You will notify us of any change in your name, address, phone number, e-mail address, or employment within 15 days of the change. By providing us with your mobile telephone number in connection with any accounts, products, or services, you consent to us (or others on our behalf) contacting you at that number. Your consent permits us to use automatic dialing technology, artificial/pre-recorded voice messages, and/or text messaging to deliver informational messages to you concerning any of your accounts, products, or services. You understand and agree that you are not required to provide this consent in order to obtain any accounts, products, or services and that you may revoke this consent at any time by calling us at 1-888-NASA-FCU (627-2328), submitting your request via eBranch, or any other reasonable method that gives us a reasonable opportunity to update our records. Informational text messages we send to you include helpful prompts, which may include replying "STOP" to cancel or "HELP" for Help. Each service provides specific prompts for you to follow. You may also contact the Credit Union for assistance. Carriers are not liable for delayed or undelivered messages.
- 6. Schedule of Fees. You will pay us fees disclosed in our most current applicable Schedule of Fees. We may deduct fees you owe us from any account from which any of you is entitled to withdraw funds or pay any fee by borrowing from a loan account of any of you. In some cases, fees are imposed to act as a deterrent. Many of these fees can be reduced or avoided through your actions.
- 7. Security and Data Recording. You understand the importance of your role in preventing misuse of your accounts and you agree to protect the confidentiality of your account, account number, and PIN or password, as well as your driver's license number, social security number, business documentation, and EIN. You will safeguard your account, account information, and order forms. For some Services, we assign (or you select) a PIN or password or we propose a security procedure to be used to access the Service and authenticate transactions. You agree that this security procedure is commercially reasonable and is designed to authenticate your transactions. You will not disclose, and will prevent the disclosure of, your PIN or password. If the confidentiality of the PIN or password is compromised, you will notify us immediately. You will not write your PIN or password on any access device or keep it in close proximity to any access device. You are solely responsible for maintaining the security of the PIN or password. You will take reasonable measures to safeguard your computer systems. Notwithstanding the terms of any of your existing or future resolutions or agreements with us, any person granted access to eBranch or electronic funds transfer (EFT) Services may authorize us to make Transactions to and from your account on your behalf. When you access any of the Services, your instructions may be recorded. We also may record or monitor any telephone call made or received by our representatives. You agree that we may record or monitor your calls without further notice to you.

This paragraph applies only to Business Accounts. If you use Services, instructions received by us are effective as your instructions, whether you authorize them in fact.

This paragraph applies only to Business Accounts. In addition to the provisions elsewhere in this Agreement, you hereby expressly agree to be bound by any account transaction, whether or not authorized, accepted by us in compliance with the agreed upon security procedure. You are solely responsible for the security of your account number and/or PIN and/or password. All Transactions made with your PIN and/or password and/or using the security procedure are conclusively presumed to have been authorized by you. We shall have no liability to you for any unauthorized Transaction made using your PIN and/or password and/or using the security procedure that occurs before you have notified us of possible unauthorized use and we have had a reasonable opportunity to act on that notice. Notwithstanding the terms of any of your existing or future agreements with us, or any resolutions adopted by you now or later in connection with such agreements, any person who has possession of your PIN or password or is granted access to any Service (including, but not limited to, eBranch Services), or to your NASA Federal VISA® Debit Card/ATM Card (as applicable) may authorize us to make transfers from your accounts and/or loan accounts on your behalf.

8. Amendments. We may change this Agreement, including the Schedule of Fees, and any of our rules and regulations at any time. Unless applicable law requires otherwise, all amendments will be binding upon you immediately after we give you notice. If a specific notice period or type of notice is required by applicable law, the revised terms will be binding in accordance with such law. Your use of your account or any Services after any amendment is your agreement to the amendment. If there is a conflict between this Agreement and something said by one of our employees, this Agreement controls.
9. Severability. If any part of this Agreement or its application to any person or circumstance is declared void, illegal, or unenforceable, the rest of this Agreement is still valid and enforceable.
10. Governing Law and Waiver. This Agreement is governed by and construed in accordance with federal law. In addition, except as expressly stated otherwise in this Agreement or as required by applicable law, and to the extent not inconsistent with federal law, this Agreement is governed by the internal laws of Maryland. No term of this Agreement is waived by us unless the waiver is in writing signed by us. Our failure to insist upon your strict performance of any term of this Agreement is not a waiver of the term. Mere lapse of time is not a waiver of any breach of this Agreement. Our waiver of any breach does not affect our right to enforce any of our rights later and does not modify this Agreement. You and we agree to waive the right to a jury trial in any dispute concerning an account.
11. Assignment. We may assign or delegate any of our rights or obligations under this Agreement to others. Neither your rights and obligations nor any account may be assigned or transferred without our written consent.
12. Use of Eastern Standard/Daylight Time. In this Agreement, all references to specific times are to Eastern Standard or Daylight Time, as applicable.
13. Collection Expenses. You will pay any losses, costs, and expenses, including our internal costs, costs to prepare or respond to legal papers, attorneys' fees, and costs of litigation, that we incur: in responding to any legal proceeding relating to you or your account; in connection with a dispute among owners or signers or resulting from suspicious activity; if we must take legal action to collect amounts you owe us; or as a result of any dispute. This includes disputes between you and us and situations where we become involved in a dispute between you and an authorized signer or a third party claiming an interest in the account. It also includes situations where you or a third party take action with respect to the account that causes us to seek the advice of counsel, whether or not we actually become involved in the dispute. We may charge such losses, costs, and expenses to your account without prior notice. If there are insufficient funds in your account, you are liable for the balance.
14. New Services. We may incorporate new options into any of the Services. By using a new option, you agree to be bound by the rules concerning that option.
15. Equipment and Technical Requirements. You must acquire the equipment, software, and online services necessary to access Services, such as a touch tone telephone, telephone lines, Internet Access, and a personal computer. You will pay to us promptly all sales, use, or other taxes applicable to the Services, excluding taxes based upon our net income. You authorize us to debit these taxes from your accounts.
16. Force Majeure. Except for your obligations to pay us, neither party will be liable to the other party for any failure or delay in performance caused by reasons beyond its reasonable control, including, but not limited to, restrictions of law, regulations, orders, or other governmental directives, labor disputes, acts of God, third-party mechanical or other equipment breakdowns, fire, explosions, fiber optic cable cuts, interruption or failure of telecommunication or digital transmission links, Internet failures or delays, storms, or other similar events.
17. Limitation of Credit Union's Liability. This paragraph applies to all accounts except as otherwise provided in this Agreement. WE SHALL HAVE NO LIABILITY WHATSOEVER, UNDER ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, FOR ANY LOSS, COST, CLAIM, CAUSE OF ACTION, OR DAMAGES OF ANY KIND YOU OR ANY OTHER PERSON INCURS ARISING FROM OR RELATING TO THE SERVICES OR THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, UNAUTHORIZED USE OF ANY OF THE SERVICES.

We provide Services "as is" without any warranty of any kind, either expressed or implied, including, but not limited to, the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose. There is no warranty that your use of Services will be uninterrupted or error-free. There is no warranty against interference with your enjoyment of the information contained in the Services or against infringement. You assume all risks of the use, results, and performance of the Services. We are not responsible for any errors or failures caused by the malfunction of Services. We also are not responsible or liable for any computer virus caused by or introduced through the use of Services. We are not responsible for your acts or omissions or those of any other person, including, without limitation, any transmission or communications facility, and no such party shall be deemed to be our agent. In any event, we are not liable for any special, consequential, incidental, or punitive losses, damages, or expenses in connection with this Agreement or Services, even if we have knowledge of the possibility of them.

18. Your Indemnity. You will indemnify us against and hold us harmless from all claims, demands, losses, liabilities, or expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) resulting from or arising out of (a) this Agreement or any of the Services, (b) any breach of any of your representations, warranties, or agreements in this Agreement, (c) your improper operation, mechanical failure, or failure to properly service or maintain any personal computer(s) in connection with any of the Services, or (d) any misconduct or negligence of your officers, employees, or agents in performing any of your duties or functions hereunder.
19. Transfer of Funds – Business Accounts only. We may, but are not obligated to, transfer funds from your Business Savings, Money Market, or loan accounts on your written, oral, or electronic request. You understand and agree that no transfer will be made unless there are sufficient available funds on deposit or sufficient credit available at the time of transfer. We may also make automated transfers, in our sole discretion, to cover overdrafts from your Checking Account, but are not obligated to do so. You understand and agree that no transfer will be made unless there are sufficient available funds on deposit or sufficient credit available at the time of transfer. You agree that any such transfer(s) shall be either: in the exact amount authorized or overdrafted; or in increments as may be designated by us. You understand that Regulation D transfer limits apply to transfers from some accounts.
20. Financial Information – Business Accounts only. You agree from time to time, upon our request, to provide us with current financial information.
21. Facsimile Signatures. A "facsimile signature" is any method used to authenticate an order other than a manual signature of a natural person's name made by that person. Facsimile signatures include, but are not limited to, signature stamps or plates, computer generated symbols, and signatures produced by digital or other electronic means. If you use a signature facsimile machine or stamp, we may pay any order if the order bears a facsimile signature that resembles the appropriate facsimile signature, regardless of how the facsimile signature came to be placed on the order. We may pay such orders even if the facsimile signatures were placed on the order without your authority. We may pay such orders regardless of the persons to whom they are drawn or paid. You assume full responsibility for all payments we make in good faith over any facsimile signature resembling an appropriate specimen facsimile signature.
22. Unlawful Internet Gambling – Business Accounts only. In accordance with the requirements of the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act of 2006 (UIGEA) and Federal Reserve Regulation GG, restricted transactions are prohibited from being processed through your business account. Restricted transactions generally include, but are not limited to, those in which a business accepts credit, electronic funds transfers, checks, or drafts from a person or business in connection with unlawful internet gambling.
23. Compliance. You agree to comply with applicable laws and regulations and you agree not to use any accounts or related services for any illegal purposes, transactions, or activities.

D. ACCOUNT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The following terms and conditions apply to all of your accounts.

1. Deposits. We will act as your agent for the collection of all deposits to your account. We are not responsible for any deposit until actually received by us in cash. We have the right to supply your endorsement to any non-cash deposits. We may, in our discretion, provide a receipt for any deposit presented to one of our tellers, subject to later proof and verification. In those instances we may perform such proof and verification after normal business hours. All deposits are subject to our verification before being credited to your account. You will be notified of any deposit discrepancies. We may accept deposits from any source, and we need not question the authority of the person making the deposit. We may refuse to accept part or all of a deposit for any reason in our sole discretion. We may refuse to cash a check against an account and require the check to be deposited. We are not obligated to accept any deposit dated 6 months or more prior to the time it is deposited, but we may do so in our sole discretion. We also are not obligated to accept any deposit before the date listed on the order, but we may do so in our sole discretion. We are not obligated to accept any deposit unless you write your account or other identifying number we find acceptable on the deposit, but we may do so in our sole discretion, and you authorize us to write such number on the deposit on your behalf. All deposits are received and credited by us subject to final collection, to the extent permitted by applicable law. Regardless of any final settlement, if a deposit is returned to us, we may, in our discretion and without prior notice to you, either resubmit it for payment, deduct the amount of the deposit from your account, or place a hold on your account for the amount of the deposit until liability for the deposit is determined. Our Funds Availability Disclosure sets out our rules on the availability of deposits. If a claim is made against us for the recovery of all or any part of any deposit (including any items cashed by you) after final payment by us on the grounds that such deposit was altered, bore a forged signature or endorsement, or was not properly payable, we may withhold or withdraw the amount of such claim from your account until resolution of the claim.

For each "remotely created check" deposited into an account, you warrant that the person on whose account the check is drawn authorized the issuance of the check in the amount stated on the check and to the payee stated on the check. A remotely created check is any check that does not bear a signature applied, or purported to be applied, by the person on whose account the check is drawn. With respect to each deposit, you make to us all representations and warranties that we make or are deemed to make to any party pursuant to law, regulation, or clearinghouse rule.
2. Cash Transactions. In order to accommodate your cash needs, you may be required to provide 72-hour prior notice to your branch of any anticipated large cash withdrawal. If you do not provide notice, your request may not be fulfilled.
- 3.(A) Orders/Checks. We may refuse to honor any order if: there is a dispute about your account; the account is garnished, attached, pledged, or subject to a right of offset; we cannot verify the availability of funds in the account; any document we require has not been given to us; or as otherwise specified in this Agreement or in our Funds Availability Disclosure. We are not obligated to pay an order dated 6 months or more prior to the time it is presented for payment, but we may do so in our sole discretion. If an order is presented for payment before the date written on the order, we may, in our sole discretion, return it unpaid or pay it (unless you have provided us with a timely notice of postdating in the form required by us) without any liability to you. Any orders paid will be charged against your account or be handled as otherwise provided in this Agreement. We may process withdrawals and pay orders in any sequence we determine, even if honoring a withdrawal or paying an order results in an available balance in your account insufficient to pay other orders that could have been paid. If we reasonably believe that any order represents unusual activity on your account, you authorize us to reject the order and return it unpaid. If the returned order was not properly payable, you will hold us harmless from any claims, losses, or damages as a result of not paying the order. We will not return the original checks to you. We will retain check copies (front and back) for seven (7) years and make them available to you upon request or you may view them via eBranch. We may charge a fee for copies.

- (B) Overdrafts. The following is important information regarding your account balance, how orders are posted to your account, and when an overdraft fee will be charged. PLEASE READ THIS PROVISION CAREFULLY. We are not obligated to pay any order presented against your account if the available balance in the account is insufficient or uncollected. In our sole discretion, we may pay an order even if the available balance in the account is insufficient or uncollected and if we do, you agree that we may charge the amount of the overdraft against any account from which any owner on the account is entitled to withdraw funds or, alternatively and in our sole discretion, treat the amount of the overdraft as a request for an advance from a loan account of any owner and pay the overdraft by borrowing from the loan account (subject to credit approval). Below is additional information concerning overdrafts and when overdraft fees will be assessed. "Overdraft" means there is not enough available balance in your account to pay for an order. Your account has two kinds of balances: the "actual" balance and the "available" balance. Both can be checked when you review your account through eBranch, Mobile Banking, at an ATM, by phone, or at a branch. It is important to know how the two balances differ so you understand when an overdraft fee will be assessed. Your "actual" balance is the total amount of funds in your account, without considering any deposit holds or preauthorization holds. Your "available" balance is the amount of funds in your account that are available to you to use without incurring an overdraft fee. The available balance does not include deposits before they are fully credited to your account and pending orders (such as pending debit card purchases) that have been authorized but that have not yet posted to your account. For example, if you purchase gas at a gas station using your debit card, a merchant may seek authorization of the transaction before you complete your purchase. In this case, a temporary authorization hold may be placed against the available funds in your account, but the actual purchase amount may not be posted to your account until one or more days after the temporary authorization hold was placed. This results in an available balance that is less than the actual balance for the period of time between the authorization and the posting of the debit. For purposes of determining whether your account is overdrawn, we will determine your available balance at the time an order is presented for payment. For checks, ACH, and electronic bill payments, we will determine your available balance at the time these items are presented to us for payment. For debit card PIN transactions and ATM transactions, we will determine your available balance at the time of the transaction. For debit card signature transactions, we will determine your available balance when the merchant presents the order for payment, even if there were sufficient available funds at the time the debit card was presented to the merchant. In addition, it is very important to understand that you may overdraw your account even though the available balance or actual balance appears to show that there are sufficient funds to cover an order that you want to make. To accurately assess your available and actual balance at any given time, it is very important that you keep an accurate running balance of all your transactions. In all cases where an order is presented against insufficient available funds, whether or not we pay it, you agree to pay an overdraft fee in the amount specified in our Schedule of Fees, which is updated periodically. Because we may receive multiple deposit and withdrawal orders in connection with your account in many different forms throughout each day, you may be charged more than one overdraft fee if we pay multiple orders when your account is overdrawn, even though it may be the same charge coming through. From time to time, we may offer a program that will cover overdrafts. If we do, we will inform you about the program. If you have any questions about how we process transactions, your balances or overdrafts, please call (301) 249-1800.
4. Regulation D Transfer Limits. Federal Reserve Regulation D affects you by limiting certain withdrawals and transfers that may be made from your Savings and Money Market Accounts. The following transactions (or any combination thereof) are limited to 6 per month: overdraft agreements where money is automatically withdrawn from an account to cover overdrafts in any of your other accounts; Contact-24 Transactions or other telephone transfers from an account to other accounts or third parties; eBranch and Mobile Banking Transactions from an account to other accounts or third parties; and pre-authorized, automatic transfers (ACH) made at a predetermined time to third parties or to your other accounts. There is no limit on the frequency or dollar amount of transfers for the purpose of repaying loans and associated expenses where the loan has been made to you by us or is serviced by us. There are no limitations on the number of transactions that you handle on any account in person, by mail, or through an ATM. We will refuse any transactions that are not in compliance with Regulation D (checks may be returned and fees applied).
5. Stop Payment Requests. At your risk, upon your request, and subject to the provisions outlined below, we will accept a stop payment request on an order drawn on your account from any owner of or authorized signer on the account. Special rules apply to certain electronic debits and to the extent this Section is inconsistent with those rules, the special rules apply. A check given to any merchant may be converted into an ACH Transaction. A request to stop payment on the converted check will depend upon our ability to identify that particular ACH Transaction. Such a stop payment order must be provided to the Credit Union at such time and in such manner as to allow us a reasonable opportunity to act upon the stop payment order prior to acting on the ACH Transaction. While payment of an order may be stopped, you may remain liable to any person, including us, who is holder of the item despite the stop payment. Stop payment requests may be made orally or in writing. An oral stop payment request is effective for 14 calendar days following our receipt unless confirmed by you in writing before the end of that time period. A written stop payment request is effective for 6 months following our receipt and must be renewed in writing. Stop payments made in eBranch are considered written requests and are valid for 6 months following the request date. A stop payment request form is available at our branch offices or online. If you fail to renew a stop payment request before it expires, you will be deemed to have consented to payment of the order. You will pay our fee for stop payment and hold us harmless from all expenses and costs incurred by us, including attorneys' fees, in stopping payment. Because our processing of stop payment orders may be automated, you must provide us with the exact: amount of the order; payee; order number; account number; and any other information we may require. If all of this information is not correctly provided by you, we will not be liable if the order is paid. We will not be liable for incidental or consequential damages. A stop payment request becomes effective only after we have had a reasonable opportunity to act upon it. Our receipt of your stop payment request is not timely and comes too late if: we have indicated in any manner that we will pay or honor the order as drawn (for example, notice comes too late if the order has been negotiated); the order is already in our processing system; or we do not have a reasonable time to act upon it (and you and we agree that the receipt of your stop payment request on the same day as the order is presented to us does not give us a reasonable time to act on the stop payment request). If we re-credit your account after paying an order over a valid and timely stop payment request, you will transfer to us all of your rights against the payee or other holder of the order and assist us in legal action taken against that person at a subsequent time. Special rules apply to cashier's checks and any other checks or payment guaranteed by you or us. You may not stop payment on any Visa® Debit Card/ATM Card Transaction (except for certain Transactions authorized in advance to recur at substantially equal intervals).

6. Notice of Postdating. At your risk, upon your request, and subject to the provisions outlined below, we will accept a proper and timely notice of postdating to prevent the payment of an order/check before the date written on it. A notice of postdating may be given by any owner of or authorized signer on the account. You will pay our fee for notice of postdating. If the order is presented before the date written on it, we may return it unpaid in any manner consistent with applicable Federal Reserve and clearinghouse procedures. You will hold us harmless from all expenses and costs incurred by us, including attorneys' fees, in refusing payment on the order/check. Because our processing of postdated orders/checks is automated, your notice of postdating must provide us with the exact: date written on the order/check; amount of the order/check; payee; order/check number; account number; and any other information we may require. If you do not correctly provide all of this information, we will not be liable if the order/check is paid before the date written on it. In any event, our liability for early payment of an order/check for which we have received a proper and timely notice of postdating is limited to your actual losses, up to the amount of the order/check. If we re-credit your account after paying a postdated order/check over a proper and timely notice of postdating, you will transfer to us all of your rights against the payee or other holder of the order/check and assist us in legal action taken against that person. You understand that any holder in due course of the order/check, including us, may be entitled to enforce payment against you despite your notice of postdating. Our receipt of your notice of postdating is not timely and comes too late if: we have indicated in any manner that we will pay or honor the order/check as drawn; the order/check is already in our processing system; or we do not have a reasonable time to act upon it (and you and we agree that receipt of a notice of postdating on the same day as the order/check is presented to us does not give us a reasonable time to act on the notice of postdating). A notice of postdating must be made in writing and is effective for 6 months following our receipt and must be renewed in writing. If you fail to renew a notice of postdating before it has expired, you shall be deemed to have consented to payment of the order/check at any time. In any event, a notice of postdating will cease to be effective at the earlier of the date written on the order/check or the expiration of the notice of postdating, and the order/check may be paid by us and charged against your account if presented to us after that time.
7. Automated Processing and Clearing. We have adopted automated collection and payment procedures so that we can process the greatest volume of deposits and orders at the lowest possible cost to all members. These automated procedures rely primarily on information encoded at the bottom of each order/check in Magnetic Ink Character Recognition "MICR" characters/symbols. You agree that in paying or taking an order for collection we will rely on the MICR information and any other encoded information (even if inconsistent with other information on the order) and disregard any restrictive instructions such as "Void after 90 Days," or "Two Signatures Required for Amounts Over $5,000". You will reimburse us for any loss or expenses we incur because you issue or deposit an order containing such extra information. You agree that we do not fail to exercise ordinary care in paying an order if our procedures provide for limited or no sight examination. We may require that you use orders/checks printed at specific vendors specializing in check printing if our processing equipment experiences higher than normal rejection rates of orders/checks drawn on your account. If we impose this requirement, you will be responsible for any and all expenses associated with check printing and/or reprinting with the correct required information.
- We only process checks through the Federal Reserve System.
8. Access to Your Account by Third Party. By giving, whether orally, electronically, or in writing, a third-party information about your account (for example, your account number or the MICR information appearing at the bottom of your checks or your access numbers or devices), you are authorizing those parties to generate orders withdrawing money from your account in the amounts they draw payable to whom they identify. All orders generated by third parties who have your account information are deemed to be authorized by you. You authorize us to honor those orders and we have no obligation to re-credit your account.
9. Power of Attorney. An owner may name another individual to act on the owner's behalf using a written power of attorney. Except as prohibited by applicable law, we reserve the right, in our sole discretion, to not recognize a power of attorney to act on an account. We reserve the right, in our sole discretion, to consult counsel regarding the meaning and scope of any written power of attorney and you agree to pay immediately upon our request for the cost of any such consultation. If we do recognize a power of attorney, the named attorney-in-fact (Agent) acts solely in that capacity for the benefit of the named owner(s) (Principal). Regardless of the terms in a power of attorney, there are a number of activities we do not allow an Agent to carry out on behalf of a Principal, and both Principal and Agent agree to these limitations on powers set forth in our operational procedures, as may be revised from time to time. Both Principal and Agent certify that any funds deposited into or withdrawn from the account are properly within the Agent's custody and may be lawfully deposited into or withdrawn from the account in accordance with authority duly vested in the Agent and that we have no duty to verify the authority of the Agent to make particular deposits or withdrawals. The Agent is not an owner of the account, no funds in the account belong to the Agent by reason of that capacity, and the Agent has no right of survivorship in the account. The Agent promises to keep records in good faith and in the ordinary course of business which detail the interests of the Principal at all times. If a power of attorney is recognized, revocation or termination of the power of attorney shall be effective as to us only after we have actual knowledge of the revocation or termination (which means we have received written notice of revocation or termination, or received a death certificate or court order), and then only after we have had a reasonable time to act upon such knowledge.

10. ACH and Other Transactions. Under the operating rules that apply to ACH Transactions involving your account, we are not required to give next day notice to you of receipt of an ACH item, and we will not do so. You agree that we may notify you of the receipt of ACH and other Transactions in the periodic statements we provide to you. If periodic statements are not provided to you, you agree that we are not obligated to provide you with notice of receipt of payments. ACH operating rules provide that credit given by us to you for ACH credit entries is provisional until we receive final settlement for the entry through a Federal Reserve Bank or otherwise receive final payment. If we do not receive final settlement, we are entitled to a refund of the amount credited to you in connection with the entry, and the party that originated the payment to you shall not be deemed to have paid you. You will be bound by these rules. ACH deposits are posted to your account no later than the settlement date, in accordance with the ACH operating rules. If the ACH is posted to your account earlier than the settlement date, we reserve the right to place a hold on availability until the settlement date. For both ACH credits and debits and funds transfers into your account, the account number will be the sole validation point for posting purposes regardless of whether the name of the receiver in the entry matches the name associated with the account number in the entry. However, in our sole discretion, we may return ACH credits and debits and funds transfers if member name and account number do not match. Your liability for unauthorized Transactions is discussed in the Electronic Funds Transfer section of this Agreement.

If, in connection with a direct deposit plan, we deposit any amount in an account which should have been returned to the federal government for any reason, you authorize us to deduct the amount of our liability to the federal government from the account or from any other account you have with us, without prior notice and at any time, except where prohibited by law. We may also use any other legal remedy to recover the amount of our liability.

Receivers of International ACH Transactions (IAT) should be aware that we may, from time to time, need to temporarily suspend processing of a transaction for greater scrutiny or verification against the Specially Designated Nationals (SDN) list. This action may affect settlement and/or availability.

11. Your Obligations. This paragraph applies to non-EFT Services. You will immediately report to us any lost or stolen orders and any unauthorized action or transaction on your account. You will request a stop payment on any lost or stolen orders. We are not liable if we pay any lost or stolen order that is forged or altered if the order would not have been paid if you had reported or stopped payment on it in a timely manner. You will notify us immediately if any confidential information about your account is disclosed to an unauthorized person. You are responsible for any action or transaction involving your account made with the use of such information. If you report any unauthorized action or transaction on your account, you will cooperate with us in our investigation of the claim and prepare an affidavit and forgery report satisfactory to us. You also will file a criminal report against any suspected alleged wrongdoing. If you fail to do so or if you enter into any settlement or restitution agreement with a wrongdoer without our consent, you waive any claims against us. We have a reasonable time to investigate any claimed loss and we have no obligation to provisionally credit your account. Our maximum liability is the lesser of actual damages proved or the amount of the unauthorized withdrawals, reduced by an amount which could have been avoided had you exercised ordinary care. In no event will we be liable for special or consequential damages or for attorneys' fees. We will not be liable for any orders that are forged or altered in such a way that such forgery could not be reasonably detected.

12. Death or Incompetence of an Owner or Authorized Signer. You agree to notify us immediately regarding the death or court-declared incompetence of any of you, including any owner or authorized signer on your account. Until we receive such notice in writing, we may continue to honor items drawn on your account by you, including owner(s) and authorized signer(s). We may freeze, refuse, and reverse payments belonging to the decedent if any owner or authorized signer dies or is declared by a court to be incompetent at our sole discretion. Without liability, we may accept deposits payable to an owner or pay orders drawn by or on behalf of an owner who died until we have actual notice of the death and have had a reasonable opportunity to act on that notice. We will require appropriate proof of death and proof of a claimant's authority before releasing funds in the account to a third party or otherwise taking direction from a third party regarding the account. We can require anyone who claims funds in your account after your death to indemnify us for any losses resulting from honoring that claim.

13. Statutory Lien/Right of Offset. Federal law gives us a lien against all assets you have with us, including funds in your accounts, if you are in default on a financial obligation owed to us. We have the authority to offset against your account at any time and without notice, for your indebtedness to us. Any indebtedness of any one of you or all of you, whether individual or joint, direct or indirect, primary or secondary, now owing or hereafter owing, may be charged to any account in your name or in your name and the name of another or other account owners, including accounts held by husband and wife. You agree to hold us harmless and indemnify us in the event the account is offset for the debt of less than all owners. We will not be liable if such a deduction causes orders to be dishonored because of insufficient funds. This right of offset does not apply to an account if it is an IRA or tax-deferred retirement account or the person who owes us the debt is not an owner of the account, but instead has withdrawal rights only as a representative of the true owner(s).

14. Account Statements. Periodically we will mail a statement concerning activity in your accounts, or, if you elect electronic delivery, we will make eStatements concerning activity in your accounts available electronically via eBranch. For Consumer Accounts, statements will be sent only to one owner on your account, normally the primary account holder. For Business Accounts, statements will be sent only to the first authorized signer listed on the Application. Sending periodic statements to a single address constitutes notice to all owners and any owner may change the address for sending statements. It is your responsibility to review your statements and transactions promptly and notify us of any unauthorized or questionable activity.

15. Unauthorized Orders/Checks/Deposits. This Section applies to orders/checks (including demand drafts, substitute checks, and remotely created checks) deposited in or drawn on your account. Unless you notify us of an unauthorized signature, unauthorized endorsement, alteration, or other discrepancy within a reasonable time (not to exceed 30 days) after we send or make available to you the account statement, you cannot assert the unauthorized signature, unauthorized endorsement, alteration, or other unauthorized order/check or deposit against us to recover any funds paid, collected or returned deposited, regardless of whether or not we are able to show a loss due to your failure, and you cannot assert any unauthorized signature or alterations by the person on orders paid after the reasonable time stated above elapses, but before we receive your notice. In any event, if you do not discover and notify us of any unauthorized signature or alteration within one year after we send or make available to you your statement, you are absolutely precluded from asserting any liability against us. If you fail to notify us of any unauthorized endorsement or forged endorsement within 60 days after we send or make available to you the statement, you cannot assert a claim against us on any items in that statement, and as between you and us, the loss is entirely yours. You must notify us of any other account problem within the 60-day period or you lose your right to hold us liable for the problem. Special rules apply to certain Transactions.

16. Dispute Among Owners or Signers or Suspicious Activity. If we believe that the signers, owners, or persons acting on behalf of the signers or owners of an account are in dispute concerning any aspect of the account or that there is suspicious activity involving the account or misrepresentation made on any Credit Union application, in our sole discretion, we may do any or all of the following things as appropriate: close the account, deny the application(s), continue to act as set forth in this Agreement based upon the signature of any authorized signer as shown in our records; freeze the funds in the account pending resolution of the dispute or activity to our satisfaction; or, except as expressly limited by law, regulation, or our bylaws, deposit the funds from the account into the registry of an appropriate court pending a court order establishing the parties who are authorized to withdraw funds from the account or the rights of the parties to the funds.

17. Legal Process Against an Account. If we receive any notice of lien, process, garnishment, execution, attachment, or other proceeding relating to you or your account, we may withhold payments of as much of the balance in your account as may be required by law and pay such amount to the court, creditor, or other party in accordance with applicable law. We may charge a fee in connection with this process. We may also place a hold on your account for a reasonable period of time to permit the parties or us an opportunity to determine who has prior rights in the funds, to file additional legal proceedings, or to resolve the action informally. We are not liable for dishonoring orders because of insufficient funds in your account due to a hold placed on the account or resulting from service charges, setoffs, levies, garnishments, liens, claims, or other legal process.

18. Termination. Subject to the Electronic Funds Transfer Section in this Agreement (if applicable), at any time, we may terminate your right to make Transactions or use all or some Services. We may give notice of termination, but we are not obligated to do so. Your PIN or password may not be used after we terminate it, or after your accounts are closed. You may cancel your right to use any Service by giving us at least 4 business days' advance notice. Cancellation by one authorized signer cancels the Services for all. Termination or cancellation will not affect any liability incurred by you prior to termination or cancellation.

19. Dormant Accounts, Inactive Accounts, and Unclaimed Property. Dormant: An account is considered dormant after 12 months (366 days) of no activity. Fees may be charged because of dormancy. Dormancy of an account will cause delays for certain transactions. An account will no longer be considered dormant once a transaction is made with respect to that account. Inactive: Accounts may be classified as inactive if no deposit, withdrawal, or transfer from or to the account has been made in the last 12 months. Inactive accounts may be charged an Inactive Account fee for each month the account is classified as inactive. The account will no longer be classified as inactive only after a qualifying transaction has occurred (deposit, withdrawal, or transfer). If there are insufficient funds to cover the Inactive Account fee, the remaining account balance will be applied to the fee and the account will be closed. If you wish to re-establish your account in the future, a new Application must be completed and a sufficient deposit must be made to cover the minimum balance requirements of any Services you request. Unclaimed Property: Under law, property held by a financial institution is presumed abandoned/unclaimed if there is no activity or correspondence after certain specified time periods, at which time the financial institution must turn over (escheat) funds in the account to the state. You agree that as permitted under applicable law, abandoned/unclaimed accounts may be subject to reasonable service charges. You agree that we are relieved of all responsibility if your account balance is turned over to a state.

20. Release of Account Information and Obtaining Information About You And In Connection With Your Accounts. We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transactions you make on your accounts as permitted by applicable law, when necessary to complete a transaction, to verify the existence or condition of your account for a third party (such as a credit bureau or merchant), and as described in the privacy notice we give you from time to time. As a member of the Credit Union, you expressly authorize us to contact your employer and obtain information about you that we need, and you consent to the release of that information to us. You also agree that we may use information found on checks you deposit for our own marketing activities.

E. ACCOUNT CLOSURE, DENIAL OF SERVICES, EXPULSION, AND TERMINATION

We may close one or more of your accounts at any time for any or no reason, unless prohibited by law, regulation, or our bylaws. An account also may be closed through a signed written authorization form: for Consumer Accounts, the primary account holder, however, we reserve the right in our discretion to require the consent of all joint account owners for termination of a joint account; or for Business Accounts, any authorized signer. Closing an account does not release the owner(s) from the obligation to pay accrued fees or from liability for orders. Accounts may not be closed if there are any accounts pledged as collateral and/or unpaid loans owed to us until security satisfactory to us has been arranged. We are not responsible for payment of any order after an account is closed. We may but are not required to give notice to you requiring you to withdraw the entire amount on deposit in your account(s) because we plan to close your account(s). Such notice shall also advise you that we reserve the right after the date specified in our notice not to make payment on any order drawn on your account. After the date specified, we will not be obligated to make any payment from such account except for the purpose of closing your account(s). If you are a member of the Credit Union and all of your accounts are closed, you will cease to be a member.

Members (including joint owners and co-signers) may lose their good standing, and may be denied benefits and the ability to access one or more services for certain infractions, including but not limited to: default on a loan; causing any monetary loss to the Credit Union; or abusive or inappropriate behavior in a Credit Union office or while conducting business with a Credit Union employee. You agree that we will incur additional costs in connection with accounts experiencing suspicious activity and that such activity constitutes conduct causing a monetary loss to the Credit Union. We reserve the right to suspend Services and/or terminate accounts of members, including their duly authorized representative(s), when they lose their good standing or otherwise misuse or abuse such Services or accounts (to include misrepresentations on any Credit Union application and any suspicious activity concerning an account). We also may suspend account activity if you do not provide account documentation or new membership applications as requested by us.

Members may be expelled by majority vote of a quorum of the Board of Directors of the Credit Union for non-participation, which includes, but is not limited to, failure to use share, loan or other Services for a prolonged period. Members, joint owners, authorized signers, and co-signers also may be expelled from the Credit Union if they default on a loan or cause a loss to the Credit Union for unpaid fees or other charges. A Special Meeting of the membership will be held at the discretion of the Board of Directors to expel members who have caused a monetary loss to the Credit Union. Approval to expel members requires a two-thirds vote of the members present at the meeting. A notice of the Special Meeting will be sent by U.S. mail to members identified for expulsion from the Credit Union. Members may avoid expulsion by repaying their obligations to the Credit Union.

In addition, membership in the Credit Union will be terminated if a member fails to complete payment of one share within 30 days of admission to membership, does not make a deposit sufficient to cover any increase in the value of one share, or the member's share balance is reduced below the par value of one share and is not increased within 30 days to the value of one share.

F. ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURES CONCERNING SPECIFIC CONSUMER ACCOUNTS

To be a member and maintain accounts at the Credit Union, you must purchase one share in the Credit Union in a Prime Savings Account. The par value of a share in this Credit Union is $5.00 (minimum balance) and must be maintained in the Prime Savings Account.

Disclosures Concerning Dividends. Unless stated otherwise in this Agreement or provided for in a separate agreement, the following terms apply to all dividend-bearing accounts.

Declaration of Prospective Dividends: Dividends are paid from current income and available earnings of the Credit Union after required transfers to reserves at the end of the dividend period. The dividend rate and Annual Percentage Yield (APY) reflect the earnings the Credit Union anticipates having available for distribution.

Rate: The dividend rate on all dividend-bearing accounts is a variable rate, except as otherwise noted below for Certificates. The dividend rate and the APY are disclosed monthly on the Credit Union's website (available at www.nasafcu.com). The dividend rate and APY may change every month as determined by the Credit Union's Board of Directors in its sole discretion.

Balance Computation Method: Dividends are calculated by the average daily balance method which applies a periodic rate to the average daily balance in the account for the month. The average daily balance is calculated by adding the principal in the account for each day of the month and dividing that figure by the number of days in the month.

Compounding and Crediting: Dividends are computed from the date of deposit to the date of withdrawal and are credited and compounded monthly. For example, the beginning date of the first dividend period of the calendar year is January 1 and the ending date of such dividend period is January 31. All other dividend periods follow this same pattern of dates. The dividend declaration date follows the ending date of a dividend period, and for the example above, is February 1. If you close your account before dividends are credited, you will not receive the accrued dividends. There will be no dividends credited after you have caused a monetary loss to the Credit Union as described in this Agreement under Denial of Services, Expulsion, and Termination. If any dividend calculation produces an amount that is less than $0.01, such amount will not be credited, will not be used for calculations for future dividend periods, and will not be paid.

Date Dividends Accrue: Dividends will begin to accrue on the business day that you make your deposit.

Fees and Charges: Other fees and charges may apply based on the product, service, or transaction. The amount of the fee may vary based on your Member Rewards level. For more information see the Schedule of Fees and Membership Rewards Program at nasafcu.com.

Transaction Limitations: Regulation D transfer limits described in this Agreement apply except as noted otherwise below. In addition, we reserve the right to require prior notice of your intention to make a withdrawal not less than 7 days and up to 60 days before the withdrawal.

*182 days for certificate accounts with terms up to 24 months and 365 days for certificate accounts with terms greater than 24 months (effective for new certificates and certificate renewals on and after November 1, 2016).

Renewal Policies: Upon maturity, your certificate account will automatically renew for the term disclosed at the certificate opening unless instructed otherwise. A renewal notice will be provided by the Credit Union at least 10 days prior to maturity. You will have a grace period of at least 10 calendar days after the maturity date to withdraw the funds in the account without being charged an early withdrawal penalty. If you withdraw the funds, no dividends will be paid for the grace period.

G. FUNDS AVAILABILITY DISCLOSURE

This Section applies only to consumers.

This disclosure describes your ability to withdraw funds at NASA Federal Credit Union. It only applies to the availability of funds in transaction accounts. The Credit Union reserves the right to delay the availability of funds deposited to accounts that are not transaction accounts for periods longer than those disclosed in this Section.

It is the policy of the Credit Union to follow the guidelines contained in the federal regulation Availability of Funds and Collection of Checks (Regulation CC – 12 CFR 229), in determining the delay of funds from deposits of checks, money orders, and traveler checks. During the delay you may not withdraw funds from the deposit in cash and the funds will not be used to pay checks you have written. In certain instances, funds from these items will be available immediately, as described in this disclosure.

Even after we have made funds available to you, and you have withdrawn the funds, you are still responsible for checks you deposit that are returned to us unpaid and for any other problems involving your deposit.

Determining the Availability of a Deposit. When we delay the availability of a deposit, the length of the delay is determined by counting the business days up until 5:00 PM from the date of your deposit. Every day is a business day, except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. If you make a deposit at an ATM that we own or operate after 12:00 PM or on a day we are not open, we will consider the day of deposit to be the next business day.

The length of the delay may vary depending on the type of the deposit and is explained below.

Same-Day Availability. Funds from electronic direct deposits to your account will be available on the day we receive the deposit.

Next-Day Availability. Funds from the following deposits are available no later than the first (1st) business day after the day of your deposit:

- U.S. Treasury checks that are payable to you
- Wire Transfers
- Checks or drafts drawn on NASA Federal Credit Union

Next-Day Availability for Certain Deposits Made In Person. Funds from the following deposits are available no later than the first (1st) business day after the day of your deposit if you make the deposit in person to one of our employees:

- Cash
- State and local government checks (DC, MD, and VA)
- Cashier's, certified, teller, and official bank checks
- Official Payroll Checks (as we define them from time to time)
- Federal Reserve Bank checks, Federal Home Loan Bank checks, and U.S. Postal Service money orders.

If you do not make your deposit in person to one of our employees (for example, made at an ATM or mailed in), funds from these deposits will be available no later than the second (2nd) business day after the day we receive your deposit.

Availability of Other Check Deposits. The first $200 from the aggregate of deposits will be available no later than the first (1st) business day after the day of your deposit. The remaining funds will be available on the second (2nd) business day after the day of your deposit.

Longer Delays May Apply. Additionally, funds deposited by check may be delayed for a longer period under the following circumstances:

- There is reason to believe a check you deposit will not be paid
- You deposit checks totaling more than $5,000 on any one day
- A check is re-deposited that has been previously returned unpaid
- You have overdrawn your account and/or have had return deposits repeatedly in the last 6 months
- There is an emergency, such as a failure of computer or communication equipment

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the seventh (7th) business day after the day of your deposit.

Special Rules for New Accounts. If you are a new member, the following special rules will apply during the first thirty (30) days your account is open.

Funds from deposits of cash, wire transfers, and the first $5,000 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, travelers, and federal, state and local government checks will be available on the next business day after the day of your deposit if that deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks are payable to you. The excess over $5,000 will be available on the ninth (9th) business day after the day of your deposit. If your deposit of these checks (other than U.S. Treasury check payable to you) is not made in person to one of our employees, the first $5,000 will not be available until the second (2nd) business day after the day of your deposit. Funds from all other checks will be available no later than the ninth (9th) business day after the day of your deposit.

When depositing or cashing a check, please note:

1. Rights: We reserve the right to verify the availability of funds from checks you present for deposit or cashing. Additionally, we reserve the right to hold funds already on deposit when cashing check or check-like items. Those funds will be available at the time funds from the check we cashed would have been available if you had deposited the item.
2. Endorsements: Endorse checks exactly as printed in the payee line.
3. Multiple-Payee and Third Party Checks: Multiple-payee (checks made payable to more than one person). If a check payable to two or more persons is ambiguous as to whether it is payable to the persons together or apart, it may be negotiated by any one of the payees (that means a check payable to more than one person that does not include the word "and" between the names may be negotiated by any one of the persons named on the check).

Third Party (checks payable to one party who endorses the check over to another party). All payees must endorse the check regardless of the amount. Third party checks will be accepted for deposit at our sole discretion.

Multiple-payee and third party checks in excess of $500. All payees must be present (with valid identification) or named on the account in order for the Credit Union to accept these items for deposit or cashing.

4. State or Local Government, U.S. Treasury Checks, and Insurance Checks: These items must be endorsed exactly as printed and all parties named on the check(s) must be present (with valid identification) or named on the account of deposit in order for the Credit Union to accept these items for deposit or cashing. Regardless of the amount, we do not accept third party checks referenced in this section.
5. Night Depository: Deposits made at the night depository are considered made on the business day that the item is removed from the depository.

6. ATM Deposits: Deposits are only accepted at the ATMs identified as NASA Federal Credit Union or through Participating deposit taking terminals. Fund from ATM deposits may not be available immediately. The first $200 of your deposit will not be made available when the deposit is made at an ATM we do not own or operate.
7. Service Centers and Shared Branches: Deposits made through a Service Center or Shared Branch is a transaction at another institution that has agreed under contract to act on our behalf. When you use these facilities, you are subject to the other institution's funds availability policies, which may differ from our Funds Availability Policy.

H. ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFERS

This Section of this Agreement contains important information about some of our electronic banking services. This Section applies to all accounts except where it is stated otherwise. The terms of this Section include the instructions and other material provided by the System (as defined below) for the EFT Services you access. Part 1 of this Section contains terms and disclosures that apply to all EFT Services not otherwise defined in this Agreement. Parts 2 through 4 of this Section contain additional information that applies to specific types of EFT Services not otherwise defined in this Agreement. Part 5 of this Section applies to Business Accounts.

DEFINITIONS: In addition to terms defined elsewhere in this Agreement, in this Section these words have the following meanings:

ATM means an automated teller machine either operated by the Credit Union or that is part of a network that accepts the Card.

Card means the access device we issue to you that permits you to use ATMs, POS Terminals, and, in the case of Visa® Debit Cards only, merchants and financial institutions who accept Visa to conduct Transactions. The term includes ATM Cards (that bear our logo, but not the Visa logo) and Visa® Debit Cards.

EFT Service(s) means electronic banking services, including ATM Cards, Visa® Debit Cards, electronic direct deposits and debits, Contact-24, and one-time electronic fund transfers initiated using information from a check. EFT Service does not mean eBranch or Mobile Banking.

PIN means the Personal Identification Number or personal security code, whether one or more than one, that you choose or we assign that allows you to access one or more EFT Services.

POS Terminal means an electronic Point-Of-Sale terminal that is part of a network that accepts the Card to pay for purchases from your checking account.

System means the components that permit you to make Transactions through the EFT Services, such as ATMs, POS Terminals, telephone lines and equipment, and the ACH system.

Visa® Purchase(s) means the use of a Visa® Debit Card to purchase goods or services from a merchant, or to obtain cash from a Visa® member bank branch, and the Transaction is processed through the Visa® Network.

1. General Terms. This Part contains terms and disclosures that apply to all EFT Services except where it is stated otherwise.
 - a. Designation of Accounts and Request for EFT Services. You request that we make each of your accounts designated as part of an Application available for access through the EFT Services you specify. You request us to include those accounts and EFT Services that you designate in the future through a method acceptable to us. You promise that you are authorized to make all such requests and to have such accounts and EFT Services included.
 - b. Your Liability for Unauthorized Transfers - Consumer Accounts only. If you believe your Card has been lost or stolen, or that your PIN has been discovered by someone else, or that someone has conducted or may conduct a Transaction without your permission, or if you believe a Transaction has been made using the information from your check without your permission, contact us immediately by telephone as described in the Agreement under "Notice". Calling us is the best way to reduce possible losses. You could lose all the money in your accounts (plus your maximum overdraft line of credit). If you learn of the loss or theft of your Card/PIN and tell us within 2 business days, you can lose no more than $50 if someone used your Card/PIN without your permission. If you do NOT tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Card/PIN, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your Card/ PIN without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.

This paragraph applies only to Consumer Accounts. If your statement shows Transactions that you did not make, including those made by Card, PIN code, or other means, notify us at once. If you do not notify us within 60 days after the statement was issued to you, you may not get back any money you lost, if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money had you told us in time. If good reasons (such as long trips or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods to a reasonable limit. Notice of lost Cards or PINs or unauthorized Transactions is considered given to us either in person, by telephone, or in writing. If you notify us in writing, notice is considered given at the time you place the notice in the mail or when you deliver the notice for transmission by any other means.

This paragraph applies to both Consumer Accounts and Business Accounts. You will not be liable for any unauthorized Visa® Purchases unless we determine that you were grossly negligent or fraudulent in the handling of your account or Visa® Debit Card.

- c. Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transactions. Contact us at the telephone number or address in the Agreement under "Notice" as soon as possible, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt.
 - (i) Tell us your name and account number (if any).
 - (ii) Describe the error or the Transaction you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as possible why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
 - (iii) Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

This paragraph applies only to Consumer Accounts. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the first statement on which the problem or error appeared. If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 Business Days. We will determine whether an error occurred within 10 Business Days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within 10 Business Days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 Business Days, we may not credit your account. For errors involving new accounts, point-of-sale, or foreign-initiated transactions, we may take up to 90 days to investigate your complaint or question. For new accounts, we may take up to 20 Business Days to credit your account for the amount you think is in error. We will tell you the results within 3 Business Days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask us for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

This paragraph applies to both Consumer Accounts and Business Accounts. If you have given written notice of an unauthorized VISA® Purchase, we will recredit your account provisionally within 5 Business Days of our receipt of the notice unless we determine that the circumstances or your account history warrants a delay.

- d. Periodic Statements; Receipt and Confirmation. You will receive a monthly statement for any account that has a Transaction that month. In any event, you will get a statement at least quarterly.
- e. Limitations on Frequency and Dollar Amount of Transactions. Federal banking regulations that restrict transfers and withdrawals from certain accounts are discussed in the Agreement. There are additional limitations on the dollar amount and/or number of Transactions that you may make under the various EFT Services per day and they are discussed in greater detail in the Agreement or in product terms applicable to specific EFT Services (which we may change from time to time, in our discretion). In all cases, security concerns may lead to other limits on the number or dollar amount of Transactions you may make from time to time.
- f. Liability for Incomplete Transactions. If we do not complete a Transaction to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to this Section, our potential liability to you is set forth in other parts of this Section. However, there are exceptions to our liability in all cases. We will NOT be liable, for instance:
 - If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money (available funds) in your account to make the Transaction.
 - If the Transaction would go over the credit limit on your overdraft line.
 - If the ATM where you are making the Transaction does not have enough cash.
 - If the System was not working properly and you knew about the breakdown when you started the Transaction.
 - If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire or flood) prevent the Transaction, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken.
 - If you have not properly followed instructions for operation of the System.
 - If the funds in your account are subject to a "hold" due to legal process, similar encumbrance or as otherwise permitted in this Agreement.
 - If the Transaction would exceed one of the established limits contained in this part of the Agreement.
 - If we did not receive a direct deposit instruction.
 - If the account is dormant or inactive.
 - If your own components making up the System were not functioning properly.
 - If we received incomplete or inaccurate information from you or a third party involving the account or Transaction.
 - If we have a reasonable basis for believing that unauthorized use of your PIN or account has occurred or may occur.
 - If we or you have terminated this Section of the Agreement, your right to access one or more EFT services, or closed the account.

In addition, there may be other limitations for the particular EFT Service.

This paragraph applies only to Consumer Accounts. Except as provided above, if we do not complete a Transaction to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to this Section, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

- g. Disclosure of Account Information to Third Parties. We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the Transactions you make:
 - When it is necessary for completing Transactions.
 - To verify the existence and condition of your account for a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant.
 - In the course of making reports or returns required by federal or state law, to comply with any government agency, court order, or applicable law and to our supervisory agency.
 - As permitted by applicable state law, including the Maryland Confidential Financial Records Act.
 - As permitted by federal law, including the Right to Financial Privacy Act and the Fair Credit Reporting Act.
 - As described in any privacy notice we give you from time to time.
- h. Availability of the EFT Services. Generally, you can use the EFT Services to access your accounts 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. It may be necessary for us to suspend access to the EFT Services on a regular basis to perform maintenance tasks.
- i. Charging Your Account; Available Balances to Make Transactions. You authorize us to charge the account you designate for each Transaction and you will have sufficient collected funds available in the account for this purpose. Refer to Sections 2 through 4 below for more information on the posting of Transactions. If any Transaction you request exceeds the balance of available collected funds in the account either at the time you request the Transaction or at any later time that your account is scheduled to be debited, we need not make such Transaction and will not be liable to you if we don't. If we elect to make such Transaction, an overdraft will be created.

j. Fees. See our Schedule of Fees.

k. Termination. At any time, we may terminate your right to make Transactions or cancel this Section of the Agreement. We may give notice of termination or cancellation, but we are not obligated to do so. Your Card and/or PIN may not be used after we terminate it, or after your accounts are closed. You may terminate or cancel your right to use any EFT Service by giving us notice. Your notice of termination will become effective no later than the end of the first business day following our receipt of your notice. Termination by one account owner terminates the Card Service (and its PIN) only for that owner; termination by one account owner terminates Contact-24 for all account owners. Termination will not affect any liability incurred by you prior to termination.

l. Preauthorized Payments.

(i) Right to Stop Payment and Procedure for Doing So. If you have told us in advance to make regular payments out of your account, you can stop any of these payments. Call us or write to us at the telephone numbers and address indicated in the Agreement under "Notice" in time for us to receive your request 3 business days or more before the payment is scheduled to be made. You must tell us the company name of the payee-originator and the debit amount. Within 14 days, you must put your stop payment request in writing (if you called us). Within 14 days, you also must give us a copy of the notice to stop Transactions you gave to the payee-originator or we may honor subsequent debits to your account by the same payee-originator. There is a charge for stopping payment.

(ii) Liability for Failure to Stop Payment of Preauthorized Payments. If you order us to stop a preauthorized payment from your account 3 business days or more before the Transaction is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages if applicable law requires that we must be liable.

2. ATM, Visa® Debit Card Use, ATM Services, and POS Services. This Part governs your use of Cards, ATM Services, and POS Services, in addition to the terms in Part 1 above.

a. Lost or Stolen ATM Cards or Visa® Debit Cards. To report a lost or stolen ATM Card or Visa® Debit Card, call the telephone numbers indicated in the Agreement under "Notice".

b. Use of the Card and PIN; Only the individual to whom the Card has been issued may use the Card and PIN. We are not responsible for any loss if you let someone use your Card or PIN to include via Smartphone, even if their use exceeded your instructions. Transactions at an ATM or POS Terminal by the use of the Card and your PIN (if required) shall be deemed to be Transactions made or authorized by you, except as otherwise provided by law. You may not use your Card for gambling (including betting, lottery tickets, casino, or online gambling) or for any illegal purpose. If you use your Card for illegal transactions, you waive any right to sue us for such illegal transactions. You agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from any suits or other legal action or liability, directly or indirectly, relating from such illegal transactions.

The Card is our property. We may revoke or limit all Cards without liability or advance notice. You will give the Card back to us when we ask. You will not keep your PIN with your Card or write your PIN on your Card, the Card carrier, or any paper you carry with the Card. A Card with the PIN written on it will be confiscated and privileges may be revoked. We may cause an ATM to retain your Card without notice to you. You may cancel ATM Service or use of your Card at any time after you give us written notice of cancellation. Your cancellation of ATM Service or your Card may act as a cancellation for any other persons on your accounts who have been issued their own Cards. Any cancellation will not affect liability you incurred prior to termination.

c. Charges in Foreign Currency. Visa converts any Transaction made to the Visa® Debit Card (purchase, credit, cash disbursement, ATM, or reversals) in foreign currency to U.S. dollars. The currency conversion procedure that Visa Inc. uses multiplies the foreign currency Transaction by an exchange rate to convert it into a U.S. dollar amount. The exchange rate between the Transaction currency and the billing currency used for processing international Transactions is a rate selected by Visa from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate Visa receives, or the government mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date. The exchange rate is subject to change by Visa. The date the exchange rate is applied by Visa is either the date the Transaction is processed or the day before the date the Transaction is processed. This means that the exchange rate applied to your foreign Transaction may differ from the rate on the date of your Transaction. In addition, an International Transaction Fee of 1% of the Transaction amount will be assessed and will be shown independently of the Transaction on your statement.

d. Transaction Business Days. Transactions made on Saturdays, Sundays, banking holidays, or after the close of business on normal business days will be posted the next business day. Deposited funds may not be available for immediate withdrawal.

e. Types of Transactions. You may use your Card and PIN at any NASA Federal Credit Union ATM to:

- Make deposits into your account(s)
- Withdraw cash from your account(s)
- Transfer funds between your account(s)
- Determine the available balance in your account(s)
- Make loan payments on your Credit Union loan(s)
- Perform any additional options available at the ATM you are using

You may use your Card and PIN at any non-NASA Federal Credit Union ATM that is part of a network that accepts the Card to:

- Withdraw cash from your account(s)
- Transfer funds between your account(s)
- Determine the available balance in your account(s)

f. Purchases at POS Terminals. You can buy goods and services with your Card and PIN at any POS Terminal that is part of a network that accepts the Card. Payment for these purchases will be withdrawn from your Checking Account. As part of the purchase, you may be able to get cash back, depending on the policies of the merchant of the goods or services.

g. Visa® Debit Card Use to Obtain Cash Advances and Make Visa® Purchases. In addition to using your Visa® Debit Card at ATMs and POS Terminals, your Visa® Debit Card is accepted at any Visa merchant location or any Visa member bank branch. You can use your Visa® Debit Card and your signature to make Visa Purchases at Visa merchant locations just as you would with a credit card. You also can use your Visa® Debit Card and signature to obtain cash advances at any member bank branch. Using your Visa® Debit Card is another way of accessing your Checking Account and each use will result in a debit against your Checking Account. You authorize us to debit or credit, as applicable, your Checking Account for the total amount of any purchase, authorization request, cash withdrawal, or credit voucher originated by use of the Visa® Debit Card.

h. Non-Visa® Debit Transaction Processing. We have enabled non-Visa® debit transaction processing. This means you may use your Visa® Debit Card on a PIN-Debit Network* (a non-Visa® network) without using a PIN. The non-Visa® debit network for which such transactions are enabled is STAR.

There are two ways Visa® Debit Card transactions can be processed:

- 1) Visa® Network: Examples of the types of actions that may be required to initiate a Visa® Purchase on your Visa® Debit Card include signing a receipt, providing a card number over the phone or via the Internet, or swiping the card through a point-of-sale terminal.
- 2) PIN-Debit Network: Examples of the types of actions that may be required to initiate a transaction on a PIN-Debit Network include initiating a payment directly with the biller (possibly via telephone, Internet, or kiosk locations), responding to a logo displayed at a payment site and choosing to direct payment through that network, and having your identity verified using known information derived from an existing relationship with you instead of through use of a PIN.

The provisions of this Agreement relating only to Visa® Purchases do not apply to non-Visa® transactions. For example, the additional limits on liability (sometimes referred to as Visa's® zero-liability program) and the streamlined error resolution procedures offered for Visa® Purchases in Part 1 above do not apply to Visa® Debit Card transactions processed on a PIN-Debit Network.

*Visa® Rules generally define PIN-Debit Network as a non-Visa® debit network that typically authenticates transactions by use of a personal identification number (PIN), but that is not generally known for having a card program.

i. Limitations on Dollar Amount of Transactions with Your Card. We may set daily Transaction limits for POS Terminal purchases with a Card when a PIN is required, including cash back at POS Terminals (if available). We may also set daily Transaction limits for using a Visa® Debit Card to make Visa® Purchases when no PIN is required. We or the ATM owner may set additional limits on the amount of cash you may withdraw at ATMs in one Transaction or during a specified period of time. In any event, no withdrawals may exceed the available balance of the account (plus any overdraft credit line) from which the withdrawals or purchases are made. Other limitations are discussed in Part 1 above.

j. Fees. When you use an ATM not owned by us, you may be charged a fee by the ATM operator or any network used (and you may be charged a fee for a balance inquiry even if you do not complete a funds transfer). These fees are in addition to any fee we charge to perform withdrawals at non-NASA Federal Credit Union ATMs.

k. Stop Payments. You do not have the right to stop payment on any Transaction originated by use of your Visa® Debit Card except for preauthorized payments.

l. Receipts. At your option, you will receive a printed record after each successful ATM Transaction. When you use your Card to perform Visa Purchases or Transactions at POS Terminals, your copy of the sales slip will be your receipt.

m. ATM and Night Depository Security. Here are some important security tips to remember about your Card and PIN and when conducting ATM or Night Depository transactions. You should keep your Card secure, and:

- Treat your Card like cash. Keep your Card in a safe place so it cannot be lost or stolen.
- Memorize your PIN. Never write it on your Card or store it with your Card.
- Check your Card receipts against your monthly statement to guard against fraud.
- Report lost or stolen Cards immediately. Even though your Card cannot be used without your PIN at an ATM, it is important to contact us as soon as you discover your Card is missing. If you do so, you will be issued a new Card.

When using ATMs or Night Depositories you should:

- Be aware of your surroundings, particularly during the hours of darkness.
- Be accompanied by another person during the hours of darkness.
- Refrain from displaying cash, place cash in a pocket as soon as the transaction is completed, and count cash in the safety of a locked enclosure such as a car or home.
- Use another location or return at a later time if anything suspicious is noticed.
- Cancel a transaction, place the access device in a pocket and leave if anything suspicious is noticed.
- Immediately report all crimes to us or the operator of the location and to local law enforcement officials.

3. Electronic Check Conversion and Direct Deposit and Direct Debit Service. This Part governs your use of Electronic Check Conversion and Direct Deposit and Direct Debit Services, in addition to the terms in Part 1 above.

- a. One-time electronic payments. You may authorize a merchant or other payee to make a one-time electronic payment from your Checking Account using information from your check to:
- Pay for purchases
 - Pay bills
- b. Recurring direct deposits and withdrawals. We support recurring deposits directly into any of your accounts. This is a pre-authorized credit for items such as social security or payroll automatically deposited into your account (direct deposit). We also support recurring withdrawals directly from your account that you authorize for automatic payment of loans, services, insurance premiums, etc., called direct debits or regular payments. See the Agreement for limitations on direct debits from Savings and Money Market Accounts.
- c. Fees. Refer to the Schedule of Fees.
- 4. Contact-24. This Part governs your use of Contact-24 Services, in addition to the terms in Part 1 above.

Contact-24 generally gives you telephonic access to your accounts 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. A PIN must be used to access your accounts.

a. You may access your account through Contact-24 (Telephone Banking) to:

- Obtain balance and statement information
- Review recent transaction information
- Get loan advances from your lines of credit with us
- Transfer funds between your accounts or loan accounts
- With authorization, transfer funds to other members' accounts
- Request information and apply for other Credit Union products/ services

b. Limitations on the Dollar Amount of Transactions. You may transfer the available balance from one account to another account. Limitations may apply.

c. Fees. Refer to the Schedule of Fees.

5. Additional Terms for Business Account Electronic Transactions -Business Accounts only. If any Wire Transfer exceeds the available balance of collected funds in your accounts, we do not need to make the Wire Transfer and we won't be liable to you for such inaction. If any provision in this Part conflicts with another provision in this Section, the provision in this Part controls.

- a. Cardholders. Cardholder means you and any persons you authorize to use the Card. Each Cardholder will receive a Card with a unique 16 digit card number. Each Card will bear the business name as well as the name of the individual Cardholder. You agree to provide each Cardholder with a copy of this Agreement. Each Cardholder is jointly and severally liable with you for all Transactions made with all Cards issued at your request now or in the future. If a Cardholder leaves your employ, the Cardholder remains liable for Transactions made on the Cards until the Cardholder notifies us to block the Cards and prevent further use.
- b. Business Purpose. You understand and agree that each Card may be used only for business purposes and that the Card will not be treated as a consumer access device under the provisions of the Electronic Funds Transfer Act or any other State or Federal Law. You will not have the benefit of any limitation of liability with respect to unauthorized use of any Card. You agree to accept all risk associated with the use of any Card.
- c. Responsibility and Liability for Transactions. You are solely responsible for the security of your PIN and all uses of your Card. All Transactions made with your PIN and/or Card are conclusively presumed to have been authorized by you. Except to the extent provided in this Agreement for Visa® Purchases, we shall have no liability to you for any unauthorized Transaction made using your PIN and/or Card that occurs before you have notified us of possible unauthorized use and we have had a reasonable opportunity to act on that notice.

We have no liability for failing to complete a Transaction to or from your Account in time or in the correct amount under any circumstances listed in Part 1(g) of this Section. In other cases, if we fail or delay in making a Transaction pursuant to your instructions, or if we make a Transaction in an amount which is less than the amount in your instructions, then (unless otherwise required by law) our liability shall be limited to interest on the amount which we fail to timely pay or transfer, calculated from the date on which the Transaction was to be made until the date it was actually made or you notify us of the problem, whichever occurs first, but in no event to exceed 30 days' interest. We may pay such interest either to you or the intended recipient of the Transaction, but in no event shall we be liable to both parties, and our payment to either party shall fully discharge any obligation to the other. If we make a Transaction in an amount which exceeds the amount in your instructions, or if we permit an unauthorized Transaction after we have had a reasonable time to act on notice from you of possible unauthorized use, then (unless otherwise required by law) our liability shall be limited to a refund of the amount erroneously paid or transferred, plus interest on that amount from the date of the Transaction to the date of the refund, but in no event to exceed 30 days' interest. If we become liable to you for interest under this Agreement or applicable law, such interest shall be calculated based on the lowest dividend rate we are then paying on our deposit accounts. In no event shall we be liable for interest compensation unless we are notified of a discrepancy within 30 days from the date of the first periodic statement reflecting the discrepancy.

Unless otherwise required by law, in no event shall we be liable to you for special, indirect, or consequential damages, including, without limitation, lost profits or attorneys' fees, even if we are advised in advance of the possibility of such damages.

You agree to reimburse us and indemnify us for any loss or expense we incur and for any claim made against us in providing Services to you, including any reasonable legal fees we have in this regard.

- d. Authentication. We reserve the right, in our sole discretion, to authenticate any request for a Service prior to providing that Service. We are entitled to rely on any communication, instrument, document, telephonic, or computer instruction believed by us in good faith to be genuine and correct and to have been given, signed, or sent by anyone on your behalf. We shall not be liable to you for the consequences of such reliance. You agree that these procedures are commercially reasonable, are designed to authenticate the use of the Services, are not designed for your protection, and are not used to detect errors in the transmission or content of any instruction.
- e. Transaction Notification. You agree that we will not notify you of any Transaction, except in any periodic statements we provide to you. If periodic statements are not provided, you agree that we are not obligated to provide you with notice of Transactions. On receipt of any periodic statement, you agree to review it and promptly report to us, in no event later than 10 days after the statement date, any discrepancies, errors, or unauthorized transactions.

I. WIRE TRANSFER AGREEMENT

If any Wire Transfer exceeds the available balance of collected funds in your accounts, we do not need to make the Wire Transfer and we won't be liable to you for such inaction. You agree to these terms whenever you ask for a wire transfer of funds (Wire Transfer) from your accounts with us. We are not obligated to make a Wire Transfer for you. Wire Transfers made primarily for personal, family or household purposes by a consumer (a natural person, as opposed to a corporation, etc.) in a State to a recipient at a location in a foreign country (Remittance Transfer) are subject to special rules that override our general Wire Transfer rules.

- 1. How to Request Wire Transfers. You may ask us to make a Wire Transfer by calling or writing us. Under some circumstances we may require a written request. Any person named on your Application may ask us for a Wire Transfer. You will need to supply us with all information we request. You promise to give us accurate information, including, but not limited to, the routing number of the recipient's financial institution and the recipient's account number. You could lose the transfer amount if you give us an incorrect recipient account number or recipient institution identifier. We may charge any of your accounts for payment of the Wire Transfer and our standard fee for this service. Our fee may change.
- 2. Security Procedures. We have established certain security procedures in connection with Wire Transfers. We may call any party designated in your Application or we may ask a "secret" question. You agree that our security procedures are commercially reasonable, designed to authenticate Wire Transfers, not used to detect errors in the transmission or content of a Wire Transfer.
- 3. Wire Transfer Business Day. We accept Wire Transfers only on business days within cutoff times we establish from time to time. Wire Transfer requests received after our cut-off hours may be treated as if received on the following business day.
- 4. Authenticating Wire Transfers. We may not make a Wire Transfer if we are unable to authenticate the Wire Transfer to our satisfaction, if there is any inconsistency between a Wire Transfer and information previously supplied to us, if the Wire Transfer is prohibited as a result of court order, garnishment, tax levy or the like, or if we reasonably believe that making the Wire Transfer might result in an unauthorized or erroneous transfer of funds or might otherwise cause us to suffer a loss.
- 5. Overdrafts. If any Wire Transfer exceeds the available balance in your accounts, we do not need to make the Wire Transfer and we won't be liable to you for such inaction. If we elect to make such transfer, you will remain liable for all amounts transferred, including funds transferred in excess of the collected balances in the account.
- 6. Confirmations. We will provide written confirmation to you of each Wire Transfer in your periodic statements. You will be deemed to have received such notification on the date it is actually received or 5 business days from the date it was sent, whichever is earlier. Except as provided in the next sentence for Consumer Accounts, our written confirmation will be deemed accurate unless immediately challenged. For Consumer Accounts only, upon receipt of written confirmation, you promptly, but in no event later than 30 days after the day that you are deemed to have received the notification, will report to us any discrepancies, errors or unauthorized transfers. We will give you a receipt when you pay for a Remittance Transfer. Generally, you may dispute Remittance Transfer errors by contacting us (as directed in the receipt) within 180 days of the date we promised that funds would be made available to the recipient. In all cases, upon our reasonable request, you will furnish to us any information concerning a Wire Transfer for purposes of investigation, including, but not limited to, amounts transferred, accounts affected, identifying names, numbers, and transfer dates.
- 7. Cancellation and Rejection. Until we have executed the Wire Transfer, you may cancel or amend it by giving us notice as described in the Agreement. Provided your cancellation request enables us to identify your name and address or phone number and the particular Remittance Transfer you want to cancel, and that the transferred funds have not been picked up by or deposited into an account of the recipient, unless you scheduled the Remittance Transfer 3 or more business days before the date of the transfer, you may cancel a Remittance Transfer within 30 minutes of making payment for it. We may reject Wire Transfers orally or in writing. Our rejection is effective when mailed, when you receive the telephone call or when the electronic transmission is sent. Notice of rejection is sufficient if it indicates that we will not make the Wire Transfer or are rejecting the Wire Transfer.

8. Our Responsibilities. We do not assume any responsibility for making a Wire Transfer on the day requested. We will disclose to you the date a Remittance Transfer will be available to the recipient. You authorize us to use any means and routes that we, in our sole discretion, may consider suitable for the transmission of funds. FedLine Advantage®, the funds transfer system owned and operated by the Federal Reserve Banks, may be used to make your Wire Transfers. Regulation J, including Subpart B which has adopted Article 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code, governs all funds transfers through FedLine Advantage. If we don't transfer the amount requested because of Federal Reserve Board rules, regulations or policies that limit the amount we can transfer, to the extent allowed by law, we won't be liable to you provided that we notify you promptly of the delay and make the transfer as soon as possible.
9. Your Liability and Indemnity. The following paragraph applies to Remittance Transfers only to the extent allowed by law. You are liable to us for the amount of a Wire Transfer if we follow your instructions, even if your instructions are wrong. If we receive a Wire Transfer request that contains inconsistencies between the name and identifying number of a beneficiary of the funds, the beneficiary's bank, or any intermediary bank, we may rely on any identifying number (including account number) rather than the name, unless we are aware of the inconsistency. You will defend, indemnify, and hold us harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, costs, expenses (including attorneys' fees), loss, or damage arising out of our acting or refusing to act upon Wire Transfers in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

J. ARBITRATION PROVISION

READ THE BELOW ARBITRATION AGREEMENT CAREFULLY. IT PROVIDES, AMONG OTHER TERMS:

- YOU OR WE MAY ELECT TO HAVE DISPUTES BETWEEN US RESOLVED BY BINDING ARBITRATION INSTEAD OF IN COURT.
- IN ARBITRATION YOU GIVE UP THE RIGHT TO SUE IN COURT AND DISCOVERY AND RIGHTS OF APPEAL ARE LIMITED. A NEUTRAL ARBITRATOR RESOLVES THE DISPUTE INSTEAD OF A JUDGE OR JURY.
- YOU MAY NOT PARTICIPATE AS A CLASS REPRESENTATIVE OR MEMBER IN ARBITRATION OR IN ANY OTHER CONSOLIDATED PROCEEDING.
- YOU MAY REJECT THE BELOW ARBITRATION AGREEMENT FOR A CERTAIN AMOUNT OF TIME AS DESCRIBED BELOW.

The below Arbitration Agreement does not apply to any "covered borrower" as defined in the Military Lending Act.

This Arbitration Agreement applies to your deposit account relationships, consumer loans (including credit card accounts, but not loans secured by a dwelling), and business loans, unless prohibited by law or as otherwise specifically excluded in this Arbitration Agreement.

Arbitration Agreement. You or we may elect to have any Claim (defined below) resolved by neutral binding arbitration instead of in court. You waive any right you have to resolve a Claim between you and us in court. You waive any right you have to participate as a class representative or class member.

Claim. Claim means any claim or dispute, whether arising in law, equity, or otherwise, and regardless of the type of relief sought involving your deposit account relationships, consumer loans (including credit card accounts, but not loans secured by a dwelling), business loans, or any other product or service you obtain from us, the validity, enforceability and scope of this Arbitration Agreement and any related account/loan documents, and any relationship that results from any of the foregoing. Claim includes initial claims, counterclaims, cross-claims, and third-party claims.

Small Claims. You and we retain the right to seek individual relief in small claims court so long as the Claim is only in that court and is within that court's jurisdiction. Filing or pursuing a Claim in small claims court does not waive any right to seek arbitration for Claims outside the court's jurisdiction or if the Claim is transferred, removed, or appealed to a different court.

Excluded Claims. The following claims, called Excluded Claims, are excluded from the arbitration process: self-help remedies (such as repossession), foreclosure, replevin, garnishment, and/or individual injunctive relief. Pursuing an Excluded Claim in court does not waive any right to seek arbitration for Claims outside the court's jurisdiction, or if an Excluded Claim is transferred, removed, or appealed to a different court.

Non-Waiver. Even if a Claim is brought in court, you or we may choose to arbitrate any Claim made by a new party or any Claim later asserted by a party in that action or any related or unrelated lawsuit.

Arbitration Process. Arbitrations will be conducted by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") or, if the AAA is not available, another arbitration organization, subject to agreement by both you and us. You can find the rules of the AAA by visiting its website at www.adr.org. Arbitrators must be attorneys or retired judges with at least 15 years of experience practicing law. Arbitrators must be selected according to rules of the AAA or any other agreed arbitration organization. Arbitrators must apply substantive governing law and applicable statutes of limitation.

The arbitration hearing will be conducted before a single arbitrator in the federal district where you live. The arbitration may take place somewhere else more convenient to you if required by the rules of the AAA or any other agreed arbitration organization. If you and we agree, the arbitration can be conducted by telephone. You will pay an administrative fee and arbitrator's fees. The AAA caps your fees depending on the amount of any Claim that you file. We will be responsible for administrative fees and arbitrator's fees in excess of the capped amounts. If you ask us in writing, we will pay the entire administrative fee and arbitrator's fees. You and we will each pay our own attorney's fees and witness and experts' expenses, except as otherwise required by law or this Arbitration Agreement. The arbitration award must be in a written, reasoned opinion. Any award must be kept confidential. The arbitrator's decision is final and binding. You and we have a limited right to appeal as permitted under the Federal Arbitration Act, except that if any arbitration results in an award of damages of $100,000 or more, either you or we may appeal that award to a three (3) arbitrator panel (selected under AAA rules), which arbitration panel will hear the Claim de novo.

30 Days to Resolve Claims. Before you start an arbitration, you agree to write to us at our address below (or any changed address that we have provided to you in writing) and give us a reasonable opportunity to resolve your Claim. Your letter must tell us your name and account number, describe your Claim, including the dollar amount of your Claim, and describe any other information you need from us. Before we start an arbitration, we must write to you at your address in our records, describe our Claim, including the dollar amount of our Claim, and give you a reasonable opportunity to resolve the Claim. We each have 30 days from receipt of notice to resolve the Claim before starting an arbitration.

Limitations. The arbitrator may award punitive damages only if and to the extent allowed under similar circumstances in a state court in the state where the arbitration occurs. The arbitrator must follow applicable state and federal laws regarding the amount of punitive damages. The arbitrator must state the exact amount of the punitive damages award. The arbitrator must allow you and us the same procedural rights and use the same standards and guidelines that would apply in a lawsuit in the state where the arbitration occurs. The arbitrator may award individual injunctive relief for the benefit of either party to the arbitration. The arbitrator may not award injunctive relief for the benefit of other persons.

Applicable Law. This Arbitration Agreement relates to a credit transaction involving interstate commerce. Any arbitration under this Arbitration Agreement is governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.), and only in the event and to the limited extent that the Federal Arbitration Act does not apply, the law of the state governing your deposit account(s) maintained with us will apply.

CLASS ACTION WAIVER. Other than as expressly provided in this Arbitration Agreement, you and we agree that only an arbitrator may resolve Claims. You agree not to bring or participate as a class representative or a class member in any class action in arbitration or in any other consolidated proceeding. Any Claim between you and us must be resolved on an individual basis. Arbitration is not available and will not be conducted on a class-wide basis.

Other Agreements. If any part of this Arbitration Agreement, other than the Class Action Waiver, is found by a court or arbitrator to be unenforceable, the remainder is enforceable. If the Class Action Waiver is found by a court or arbitrator to be unenforceable, the remainder of this Arbitration Agreement is unenforceable. This Arbitration Agreement will survive the termination of any deposit or loan accounts, regardless of reason for termination. Either you or we can compel arbitration in any court proceeding, regardless of which party filed suit. Either you or we can enforce an arbitration award. This Arbitration Agreement does not stop you from filing a complaint with a federal, state, or local regulator.

Rejection of Arbitration Agreement. You may reject this Arbitration Agreement by sending us a rejection notice at NASA FCU, Attention: Arbitration, 500 Prince Georges Blvd., Upper Marlboro, MD 20774 (and no other location) within 30 days after the date you first become subject to the terms of this Arbitration Agreement. The notice must include a statement that you reject the Arbitration Agreement, and your name address, telephone number, and account number. You must sign the rejection notice in order for it to be effective.

A. GENERAL TERMS

The following terms apply to all of the Services, except where indicated otherwise.

1. Enrollment. An account holder must enroll an account for access to eBranch. If there is more than one account holder, any account holder may enroll. You must separately enroll for certain of the Services accessible through eBranch, such as Bill Pay, eStatements, eAlerts, Remote Deposit, and Mobile Banking. Separate terms apply as indicated below. We and our service providers are not liable for any act, failure to act, or delay in acting if it is caused, in whole or in part, by any cause beyond our reasonable control.

3. Security. The online/Internet browser you use for eBranch must meet the level of security we require from time to time. You must supply and use virus protection programs to scan your Internet connected devices and related materials for viruses and remove them. You must regularly update your online/Internet browser and virus protection programs. We and our service providers are not responsible for any viruses you may encounter. You acknowledge that the Internet is inherently insecure and that all data transfers, including electronic mail, occur openly on the Internet and potentially can be monitored and read by others. Data transferred via eBranch is encrypted. Requests with personal information, such as your account number, should only be sent to us through your eBranch eMailbox. We cannot and do not warrant data transfers utilizing the open Internet. For the security of your accounts, we recommend changing your password at least every 90 days. Some of the Services may allow you to set transaction limitations and establish internal controls. Your failure to set such limitations and implement such controls increases your exposure to, and responsibility for, unauthorized transfers. eBranch uses security codes sent to predefined contacts (email, phone call, or SMS). Randomly or at specific times, eBranch may require you to enter a security code to verify your identity. You understand the importance of your role in preventing misuse of your accounts and you agree to promptly examine the statements for each of your accounts as soon as you receive them or are notified of availability. You agree to protect the confidentiality of your account and account number, and your personal identification information, as well as your driver's license number and social security number. You understand that personal identification information by itself or together with information related to your account, may allow unauthorized access to your account.

4. Available Funds. You agree to have available and collected funds on deposit in your account sufficient to pay for all bill payments and other transactions requested, as well as any other payment obligations you have to us. We reserve the right, without liability, to reject or reverse a bill payment or other transactions if you fail to comply with this requirement or any other term of this Agreement. If you do not have sufficient funds in the account and we have not exercised our right to reverse or reject a bill payment, you agree to pay for such payment obligations on demand. You agree that we, at our discretion, may charge any of your accounts to cover such payment obligations.

5. Problems, Inquiries, and Contact Information in Event of Unauthorized Transfer. NASA Federal Credit Union representatives will be available to assist you Monday through Friday, from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. and from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday. You can contact us through your eMailbox inside of eBranch or by email at support@nasafcu.com or as described below in the "Notices" section.

6. Your Liability for Unauthorized Transfers. Tell us immediately by calling us or by writing to us as described below in the "Notices" section if you believe your account number and/or password has been lost, stolen, or compromised, or that someone to whom you have granted authority to use your account number and/or password has exceeded such authority or if someone has transferred or may transfer money from your accounts without your permission. Calling us is the best way to reduce possible losses. Also, if your statement shows transactions that you did not make, including those made by card, code, or other means, tell us at once. You could lose all the money in your accounts (plus your maximum overdraft line of credit). The following provisions apply only to Consumer Accounts: If you tell us within 2 business days, you can lose no more than $50 if someone used your account number and/or password without your permission. If you do NOT tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your account number and/or password, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your account number and/or password without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If good reasons (such as long trips or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods to a reasonable limit.

7. Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transactions. If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt, please call us as soon as possible as described below in the "Notices" section. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the first statement on which the problem or error appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.
- If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days.

The following provisions apply only to Consumer Accounts: We will determine whether an error occurred within 10 business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within 10 business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 business days, we may not credit your account. For errors involving new accounts, point-of-sale, or foreign-initiated transactions, we may take up to 90 days to investigate your complaint or question. For new accounts, we may take up to 20 business days to credit your account for the amount you think is in error. We will tell you the results within 3 business days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

The following provisions apply only to Consumer Accounts: Liability for Failure to Make Payments. If we do not make a transfer on time or in the correct amount according to your instructions given in accordance with this Agreement, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions. We will not be liable if:

- You have not properly followed the instructions on how to make a transfer contained in this Agreement
- Your computer, the phone lines, or our computer systems were not working properly or were temporarily unavailable, and the problem should have been apparent to you when you attempted the transfer
- We have placed a "hold" on funds in your account with your knowledge or in accordance with reasonable business procedures
- We have received incomplete or inaccurate information from you or a third party involving the account or transfer
- A court order such as a garnishment or other legal process prevents us from making a transfer
- We have a reasonable basis for believing that unauthorized use of your account number and/or password or designated account has occurred or may be occurring or if you default under this Agreement, a credit agreement, or any other agreement with us, or if we or you terminate this Agreement
- If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account to make the transfer or payment
- If the transfer or payment would go over the credit limit on your overdraft line
- A payee mishandles or causes delays in handling payments sent by us
- You have not provided us with the correct payee name, address, account information, or payment amount circumstances beyond our control prevent the proper completion of the Transaction despite reasonable precautions by us to avoid these circumstances. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, fire, flood, delay in U.S. mail, interruption in your electrical power, telephone, or internet access, the disconnection of your telephone line or internet access by your local telephone company or internet service provider or from deficiencies in your line quality, or any defect or malfunction of your PC, operating software, modem, router, or telephone line.

8. Our Liability For Transfers. The following provisions apply to Consumer Accounts and Business Accounts: We will not be liable for negative balances on accounts caused by the non-payment of checks due to insufficient funds, delays in the mail service, or for any action by you or an authorized user of the account that results in the reversal of a deposit on the account. In no event will we be liable for damages in excess of your actual loss due to our failure to complete a transfer, and we will not be liable for any incidental or consequential damages. Without liability, we may not effect a transaction if we are unable to obtain authentication of such transaction satisfactory to us, if there is any inconsistency between a transaction and information previously supplied to us, if such transaction is not initiated in conformity with the terms of this Agreement, or if we reasonably believe that execution of the transaction might result in an unauthorized or erroneous transfer of funds or might otherwise cause us to suffer a loss.

The following provision applies only to Business Accounts: You are solely responsible for the security of your account number and/ or password. You agree to be bound by any transfer or payment order we receive through the Services, even if the order is not authorized by you, if it includes your account number and password or is otherwise processed by us in accordance with our security procedures. All transactions made with your password are conclusively presumed to have been authorized by you. We shall have no liability to you for any unauthorized Transaction made using your password that occurs before you have notified us of possible unauthorized use and we have had a reasonable opportunity to act on that notice. We have no liability for failing to complete a transfer to or from your account in time or in the correct amount under any circumstance listed for Consumer Accounts above. In other cases, if we fail or delay in making a transfer pursuant to your instructions, or if we make a transfer in an amount which is less than the amount in your instructions, then (unless otherwise required by law) our liability shall be limited to interest on the amount which we fail to timely pay or transfer, calculated from the date on which the transfer was to be made until the date it was actually made or you notify us of the problem, whichever occurs first, but in no event to exceed 30 days' interest. We may pay such interest either to you or to the intended recipient of the transfer, but in no event shall we be liable to both parties and our payment to either party shall fully discharge any obligation to the other. If we make a transfer in an amount which exceeds the amount in your instructions, or if we permit an unauthorized transfer after we have had a reasonable time to act on notice from you of possible unauthorized use, then (unless otherwise required by law) our liability shall be limited to a refund of the amount erroneously paid or transferred, plus interest on that amount from the date of the transfer to the date of the refund, but in no event to exceed 30 days' interest. If we become liable to you for interest under this Agreement or applicable law, such interest shall be calculated based on the lowest interest rate we are then paying on our deposit accounts. In no event shall we be liable for interest compensation unless we are notified of a discrepancy within 30 days from the date of the first periodic statement reflecting the discrepancy. Any claim, action or proceeding by you to enforce the terms of this Agreement or to recover for any Service-related loss must be commenced within one year from the date that the event giving rise to the claim, action or proceeding first occurs. You agree to cooperate with us in any loss recovery efforts we undertake to reduce any loss or liability that arises in connection with the Services. You waive any statutory right you may have to recover your attorneys' fees from us. You will defend, indemnify, and hold us harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, costs, expenses (including attorneys' fees), loss, or damage arising out of our acting or refusing to act upon any Transaction in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

9. Disclosure of Account Information to Third Parties. We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transactions you make as described in the Member Services Agreement.

10. Termination. At any time, we may terminate your right to use all or any of the Services. We may give notice of termination, but we are not obligated to do so. Your password may not be used after we terminate it, or after your accounts are closed. You may terminate your right to use eBranch by giving us at least 4 business days' advance notice. Termination by one account owner terminates eBranch for all account owners. Termination will not affect any liability incurred by you prior to termination.

11. Fees. You agree to pay for the Services that you enroll in and are approved to use in accordance with our current Schedule of Fees, as it is amended from time to time. We will advise you of any fee changes prior to implementing them. You authorize us to automatically charge your account for all such fees incurred in connection with your use of the Services. In the future, we may add to or enhance the features of the Services. By using such added or enhanced features, you agree to pay for them in accordance with our Schedule of Fees.

12. Periodic Statements. You will get a monthly statement for any account that has a transaction that month. In any event, you will get a statement at least quarterly.

13. Right to Stop Payment and Procedure for Doing So. If you have told us in advance to make regular payments from your account, you can stop any of these payments. You may make the change in eBranch (before 10:00 PM on the business day before the date the transfer is scheduled to be made), by contacting us by telephone, or by writing to us. You must do so in time for us to receive your request (for telephone and written stop payment requests, 3 business days or more before the payment is scheduled to be made). You may also request a stop payment for a check that you have written through eBranch, in person at one of our branch offices, by contacting us by telephone, or by writing to us. There is a charge for stopping payment on a check (see our Schedule of Fees). If you make a stop payment request orally, within 14 days, you must put your stop payment request in writing. The following provision applies only to Consumer Accounts: if you order us to stop a payment from your account 3 business days or more before the transaction is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages as provided under law.

14. Terms of Particular Online Banking Services. In addition to additional terms applicable to specific Services described elsewhere in this Agreement, the following terms apply to the Services.

a. (i) Transfer Services. See your Member Services Agreement for additional terms and conditions that apply to Transfer Services. You may transfer funds between your accounts, from other financial institutions to your accounts and from your accounts to deposit and investment accounts in other financial institutions. A "Transfer from Another Institution" moves funds into an account at NASA Federal Credit Union or to a NASA Federal Credit Union installment loan or mortgage from an account outside NASA Federal Credit Union. A "Transfer to Another Institution" moves funds from an account at NASA Federal Credit Union to an account outside NASA Federal Credit Union. You will need to register each of the non-NASA Federal Credit Union accounts that you wish to use for these transfers. You agree that you will only register accounts for which you are an owner and have the authority to transfer funds. It may take up to five (5) business days to establish a connection with other financial institutions. Note: Some accounts outside of NASA Federal Credit Union cannot be set up to receive funds. The following types of transfers can be processed:

- Transfers from an account are immediately deducted from the account's available balance.
- Immediate or scheduled one-time transfers and recurring transfers can be made from a NASA Federal Credit Union checking, savings, money market, or line of credit to most NASA Federal Credit Union accounts.
- Transfers can be made from a NASA Federal Credit Union checking, savings, money market, or line of credit account to some deposit and investment accounts outside of NASA Federal Credit Union.
- Payments to mortgages may only be made on a one-time basis.
- Other transfers can be made on a one-time or recurring basis. One-time transfers may be immediate or scheduled for a future date. The recurring transfer feature may be used when a set amount is transferred at regular intervals. For example, $100 transfers from a checking to a savings account that occurs every 2 weeks.

(ii) Scheduled and Recurring Transfers. Transfers scheduled for a weekend or a non-business day will be processed at the beginning of the next business day. All other scheduled and recurring transfers that have been requested in advance will be processed from the funding account at the beginning of the business day requested. For Account to Account transfers to and from other financial institutions, the submission cut-off time is 11:00 AM. Transfers submitted after the cut-off time may not be initiated until the next business day. Single future-dated and recurring transfers from another institution will be processed from the account you own at the other financial institution at the end of the business day requested.

(iii) Transfers to Credit Accounts. Payments to a mortgage account may be credited on the business day of the date the transfer request is submitted. Updates to account balances, funds availability, and transaction posting may take up to 2 business days after payment is applied.

(iv) Restrictions on Transfers. Transfers and withdrawals may not be made from Certificate and IRA deposit accounts. We reserve the right to deny transfers between certain types of accounts under certain circumstances. Federal Reserve Board Regulation D limits the number of electronic transfers or withdrawals that may be made from a share savings or money market account to other accounts to 6 per month. Transfers and withdrawals made through eBranch count toward this total. Refer to the Member Service Agreement for more information.

(v) Limitations on Dollar Amounts for Transfers.

- One-time transfers, scheduled, and recurring transfers between accounts within NASA Federal Credit Union can be for any amount but not more than the available balance in the account.
- For Security reasons, limitations are placed on the number of and dollar amount of ACH deposits or payments you make. This includes ACH transfers made to your NASA FCU account or to your account at another financial institution. If your membership has been open 6 months or more, the maximum you are allowed to transfer to your NASA FCU account is $5,000 per day, and $25,000 per rolling 30-day period. If your membership has been open 6 months or less, the maximum you are allowed to transfer to your NASA FCU account is $500 per day, and $5,000 per rolling 30-day period. In addition, regardless of the age of your account, the amount of the deposit or payment will not be available to you for up to five (5) business days following the date of the transfer. Limitations may change from time to time.
- All transfer limits are subject to temporary reductions and/or suspensions to protect the security of member accounts and/or the transfer system.

Mobile Banking Services. Mobile Banking requires separate enrollment and approval. If you enroll in Mobile Banking and are approved as a Mobile Banking user, the following terms apply. By using Mobile Banking via Mobile App, you agree to the following terms.

a. Description of Mobile Banking Services. Mobile Banking is a personal financial account management service that allows you to view balances and recent account activity, and conduct certain transactions using compatible and supported mobile phones and/or other compatible and supported wireless devices (collectively, "Mobile Devices"). Mobile Banking includes Short Message Service (SMS)/Text Banking ("Mobile Text"), Wireless Application Protocol (WAP) Banking ("Mobile Web") and Mobile Application Banking ("Mobile App"). We reserve the right to modify the scope of the Mobile Banking Services at any time. We reserve the right to refuse to make any transaction you request through Mobile Banking. You agree and understand that Mobile Banking may not be accessible or may have limited utility over some mobile networks, such as while roaming. The most up-to-date list of services which you may be able to access through Mobile Banking is posted on our website at nasafcu.com/mobilebanking.

b. Use of Mobile Banking Services. You accept responsibility for making sure that you understand how to use Mobile Banking before you actually do so, and then that you always use Mobile Banking in accordance with the online instructions posted on our website. You also accept responsibility for making sure that you know how to properly use your Mobile Device and the Mobile Banking software ("Software"). We may change or upgrade Mobile Banking from time to time. In the event of such changes or upgrades, you are responsible for making sure that you understand how to use Mobile Banking as changed or upgraded. We will not be liable to you for any losses caused by your failure to properly use Mobile Banking or your Mobile Device. From time to time, we may develop additional Mobile Banking Services. When such services are developed, you will have the opportunity to add them to your Mobile Banking Service, provided you have a compatible Mobile Device. Visa Lock/Unlock feature: When you place a lock on your credit or debit card via mobile banking, it will prevent most types of card transactions from being processed until you unlock the card. The lock will not stop existing recurring payments, returns and credits, dispute adjustments, travel notifications, deposits, check writing, PIN changes, in-branch withdrawals, credit card payments, credit card reward redemption or interest charges. Locking your card is not a replacement for reporting your card lost or stolen. This feature is available on the Mobile Banking app. You control the lock/unlock feature and are responsible for any costs or expenses related to the use of the feature. We are not liable or responsible for any harm caused by your use of this feature.

c. Relationship to Other Agreements. You agree that when you use Mobile Banking, you will remain subject to the terms and conditions of all your existing agreements with us and our affiliates. You also agree that you will continue to be subject to the terms and conditions of your existing agreements with any unaffiliated service providers, including, but not limited to, your mobile service carrier or provider (e.g., AT&T, Verizon, Sprint, T-Mobile, etc.), and that this Agreement does not amend or supersede any of those agreements. You understand that those agreements may provide for fees, limitations and restrictions which might impact your use of Mobile Banking (for example, your mobile service carrier or provider may impose data usage or text message charges for your use of or interaction with Mobile Banking, including while downloading the Software, receiving or sending Mobile Banking text messages, or other use of your Mobile Device when using the Software or other products and services provided by Mobile Banking), and you agree to be solely responsible for all such fees, limitations and restrictions. You agree that only your mobile service carrier or provider is responsible for its products and services, and that your mobile service carrier is not the provider of Mobile Banking. Accordingly, you agree to resolve any problems with your carrier or provider directly with your carrier or provider without involving us. You also agree that if you have any problems with Mobile Banking, you will contact us directly (see the "Notices" section of our eBranch Online Banking Service Agreement).

d. License. Subject to your compliance with this Agreement, you are hereby granted a personal, limited, nontransferable, non-exclusive, non-sublicensable and non-assignable license ("License") to download, install and use the Software on your Mobile Device within the United States and its territories. In the event that you obtain a new or different Mobile Device, you will be required to download and install the Software to that new or different Mobile Device.

e. License Restrictions / Revocation. This License shall be deemed revoked immediately upon (i) your termination of Mobile Banking; (ii) your deletion of the Software from your Mobile Device; (iii) your noncompliance with this Agreement; or (iv) written notice to you at any time, with or without cause. In the event this License is revoked for any of the foregoing reasons, you agree to promptly delete the Software from your Mobile Device. We and our service providers (which includes, without limitation, any provider of Software) reserve all rights not granted to you in this Agreement. These Mobile Banking Services terms will survive revocation of the License.

f. Software. The Software shall be used solely in connection with Mobile Banking and may not be used by you for any other reason. You may not grant any sublicenses to the Software. You agree that you will not (i) modify, change, alter, translate, create derivative works from, reverse engineer, disassemble or decompile the technology or Software, (ii) copy or reproduce all or any part of the technology or Software, or (iii) interfere, or attempt to interfere with the technology or Software. The Software does not include various third party operating systems and applications that will be required to use the Software. You will be solely responsible for such third party software. You acknowledge that the Software contains trade secrets and other proprietary and confidential information, whether or not the Software contains any copyright or other proprietary notice. You agree to take commercially reasonable precautions to protect the confidentiality of the Software. You (a) will not print, copy, or duplicate any portion of the Software, (b) will not alter any copyright notices on the Software, (c) will not make the Software available in any form to anyone except your agents for purposes specifically related to your authorized use, (d) will take appropriate action with any persons permitted access to the Software to inform them of the confidential nature thereof and to obtain their compliance with these terms, (e) only will use the Software for your personal use and not for the benefit of any other person or entity, and (f) will comply with all of our procedures and requirements for use of the Software.

g. Use of Mobile Banking. You agree that we may send you, by SMS/text, email, and other methods, communications relating to Mobile Banking, including without limitation welcome messages, information and requests for information relating to use of Mobile Banking. You agree to use Mobile Banking carefully, to keep your password confidential and secure and not share it with others, to check your statements and transactions regularly, to report any errors to us promptly by notifying us as specified in the “Notices” section in our eBranch Online Banking Service Agreement, and to cancel immediately your participation in Mobile Banking if you observe any material errors in the Mobile Banking Services.

h. Location Based Information. If you use any location-based feature of Mobile Banking you agree that your geographic location and other personal information may be accessed and disclosed through Mobile Banking. If you wish to revoke access to such information you must cease using locationbased features of Mobile Banking.

i. Export Control. You acknowledge that the Software is subject to the United States (U.S.) government export control laws and regulations, which may restrict or prohibit the use, export, re-export, or transfer of the Software. You agree that you will not directly or indirectly use, export, re-export, or transfer the Software except in compliance with applicable U.S. export laws and regulations. Without limitation, you agree that you will not use Mobile Banking in any embargoed or sanctioned country such as Iran, North Korea, Sudan, and Syria.

j. Proprietary Rights. You are permitted to use content delivered to you through Mobile Banking only on Mobile Banking. You may not copy, reproduce, distribute, or create derivative works from this content. Further, you agree not to reverse engineer or reverse compile any Mobile Banking technology, including, but not limited to, any Software or other mobile phone applications associated with Mobile Banking.

k. User Conduct. You agree not to use Mobile Banking or the content or information delivered through Mobile Banking in any way that would: (a) infringe any third-party copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret, or other proprietary rights or rights of publicity or privacy, including any rights in the Software; (b) be fraudulent or involve the sale of counterfeit or stolen items, including, but not limited to, use of Mobile Banking to impersonate another person or entity; (c) violate any law, statute, ordinance or regulation (including, but not limited to, those governing export control, consumer protection, unfair competition, anti-discrimination or false advertising); (d) be false, misleading or inaccurate; (e) create liability for us or our affiliates or service providers, or cause us to lose (in whole or in part) the services of any of our service providers; (f) be defamatory, trade libelous, unlawfully threatening or unlawfully harassing; (g) potentially be perceived as illegal, offensive or objectionable; (h) interfere with or disrupt computer networks connected to Mobile Banking; (i) interfere with or disrupt the use of Mobile Banking by any other user; or (j) use Mobile Banking in such a manner as to gain unauthorized entry or access to the computer systems of others.

l. No Commercial Use or Re-Sale. You agree that the Mobile Banking Services are for your use only (for personal and business accountholders). You agree not to resell or make commercial use of Mobile Banking.

m. Fees. You agree to pay for Mobile Banking in accordance with our current Schedule of Fees, as amended from time to time (see the “Fees” section in our eBranch Online Banking Service Agreement). Data connection required. Wireless carrier fees may apply. Message and data rates may apply.

n. Mobile Banking Services Limitations. Neither we nor our service providers can always foresee or anticipate technical or other difficulties related to Mobile Banking. These difficulties may result in loss of data, personalization settings or other Mobile Banking interruptions. Neither we nor any of our service providers assumes responsibility for the operation, security, functionality or availability of any Mobile Device or mobile network which you use to access Mobile Banking. You agree to exercise caution when utilizing the Mobile Banking application on your Mobile Device and to use good judgment and discretion when obtaining or transmitting information. YOU MUST NOTIFY US IMMEDIATELY IF YOUR MOBILE DEVICE IS LOST OR STOLEN (SEE “NOTICES” SECTION IN OUR eBranch Online Banking Service Agreement). Transfer and payment information available via the Mobile Banking software may differ from the information that is available directly through eBranch. Information available directly through eBranch may not be available via the Mobile Banking software and may be described using different terminology. The method of entering instructions via the Mobile Banking software also may differ from the method of entering instructions through eBranch. We are not responsible for such differences, whether or not attributable to your use of the Mobile Banking software. Additionally, you agree that neither we nor our service providers will be liable for any errors or delays in the content, or for any actions taken in reliance thereon.

o. Changes or Cancellation. You may cancel your participation in Mobile Banking at any time. To delete the Mobile App, refer to the instructions for deleting a Mobile Application for your specific Mobile Device. For assistance with Mobile Banking cancellation or lost/stolen Mobile Devices, call 1888-NASA-FCU (627-2328), or email support@nasafcu.com. We reserve the right to change or cancel Mobile Banking at any time without notice. We may also suspend your access to Mobile Banking at any time without notice and for any reason, including but not limited to, your non-use of Mobile Banking. You agree that we will not be liable to you or any third party for any modification or discontinuance of Mobile Banking.

Remote Deposit Service Terms and Conditions. Remote Deposit Service requires separate enrollment and approval. If you enroll in Remote Deposit Service and are approved as a Remote Deposit Service user, the following terms apply. By using Remote Deposit Service via Mobile Web, Mobile App, and/or through Mobile Banking, you agree to the following terms.

a. Remote Check Deposit. We will provide the Remote Deposit Service that permits you to submit electronic check images and associated information (“Check Images”) to us via a TWAIN compliant scanner from your desktop or laptop computer (“Scanner”) or an approved mobile device (“Mobile Device”) for deposit to your account(s) in lieu of certain original checks (“Original Checks”). The Remote Deposit Service is only available if you enroll for it separately and you are enrolled in our eBranch electronic banking services (to use a Mobile Device with Remote Deposit Service, you also must enroll in Mobile Banking). In providing the Remote Deposit Service, we may utilize and rely upon one or more third party service providers to provide file acknowledgement, file transmission, database storage, database access, data communications and other services to the Credit Union. The Credit Union may change the service provider at any time. You waive any and all rights or recourse, directly or indirectly, against any service provider. You may submit Check Image deposits to us or our service provider only with respect to Original Checks that are acceptable for deposit into your account(s) and as further described in this Agreement. Check Image deposits are subject to all provisions of the account agreements between you and us that apply to check deposits. The total amount of Check Images we will accept on any one (1) day cannot exceed the amount set forth on the Remote Deposit Service home page. This amount may be modified by us from time to time without any prior notice to you. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we may choose in our sole discretion to process Check Images that exceed this limit.

b. Software Application. The Remote Deposit Service includes the Software Application (“Application”). The Application resides on servers located at the Credit Union’s service provider, and is made available to Credit Union members by means of the Internet. We grant you a limited, non-exclusive, and non-assignable right and license to have access to, and use of, the Application in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Upon our acceptance of this Agreement, we will provide you with login access to the Application. The Application may be used solely in connection with the Remote Deposit Service and may not be used by you for any other reason. You may not grant any sublicenses to the Application. You agree that you will not (i) modify, change, alter, translate, create derivative works from, reverse engineer, disassemble or decompile the technology or Application, (ii) copy or reproduce all or any part of the technology or Application, or (iii) interfere, or attempt to interfere with the technology or Application. The Application does not include various third party operating systems and applications that will be required to use the Application. You will be solely responsible for such third party software. You acknowledge that the Application contains trade secrets and other proprietary and confidential information, whether or not the Application contains any copyright or other proprietary notice. You agree to take commercially reasonable precautions to protect the confidentiality of the Application. You (a) will not print, copy, or duplicate any portion of the Application, (b) will not alter any copyright notices on the Application, (c) will not make the Application available in any form to anyone except your employees and agents for purposes specifically related to your authorized use, (d) will take appropriate action with any persons permitted access to the Application to inform them of the confidential nature thereof and to obtain their compliance with the terms herein, (e) only will use the Application for your internal business use or personal use and not for the benefit of any other person or entity, and (f) will comply with all Credit Union procedures and requirements for use of the Application. These provisions will survive termination of this Agreement.

c. Equipment and System Requirements. At your sole expense, you must acquire a Scanner, Mobile Device and all other equipment, computer software and telecommunication services necessary for the Remote Deposit Service, furnish necessary electrical connections and surge protection to the equipment, and supply necessary electrical current for the operation of the equipment. Your Scanner or Mobile Device must be compatible with the Remote Deposit Service. Detailed descriptions of the types of equipment, devices and software compatible with the Remote Deposit Service are listed at nasafcu.com/remotedeposit. You will arrange with established telecommunication companies for the transmission of data between you and the Credit Union, and we will have no responsibility with respect to such companies or their services.

d. Check Image Requirements. You will submit Check Images to the Credit Union in such format, with such information, as we may require from time to time. Without limiting the foregoing, you agree that:

- Check Images only may be submitted for Original Checks payable to you and drawn on financial institutions located in the United States. Exception items must be deposited in person at a branch location.
- A Check Image may not be submitted for an Original Check drawn from the same account into which you are depositing the Check Image.
- Check Images may not be submitted for “substitute checks” as defined by federal law.
- Only one Check Image may be submitted for each Original Check.
- Check Images may not be submitted for any Original Check that: is stamped with a “nonnegotiable” watermark; contains evidence of alteration to the information on the Original Check; is incomplete; is “stale dated” or “post-dated,” or that has been returned not payable as a result of insufficient funds, stop payment or other reasons.
- Prior to imaging, you will properly endorse each Original Check with the following: your name (i.e., signature); date of deposit (mm/dd/yy), and the words “NASA FCU for deposit via Remote Deposit only.”
- Before transmitting a Check Image to the Credit Union, you will
 - (i) inspect the Check Image,
 - (ii) compare the Original Check with the Check Image,
 - (iii) verify that the Check Image clearly and accurately displays the payee, the drawer’s signature, the date, the Original Check number, the amount, the MICR encoded information and all other information on the Original Check, and (iv) correct any errors.

e. Service Availability. Generally, the Remote Deposit Service may be used 7 days a week, 24 hours a day (the “Service Hours”), provided, however, that Check Images only will be posted to your account as provided below in the “Acceptance and Rejection of Check Images” section. Access to the Remote Deposit Service may be unavailable on a regular basis for maintenance. Credit Union will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Remote Deposit Service to be accessible to you during the Service Hours, except for scheduled maintenance and required repairs, and except for any interruption due to causes beyond the reasonable control of, or not reasonably foreseeable by, Credit Union, including, but not limited to, any Force Majeure Event as described in the “Force Majeure” section in our eBranch Online Banking Service Agreement. In the event of any interruption or failure of the Remote Deposit Service during Service Hours, other than as permitted herein, you will promptly notify the Credit Union by contacting us as provided in the “Notices” section in our eBranch Online Banking Service Agreement. In the event that the Services are unavailable, you acknowledge that you can deposit an Original Check at a tour branches or through our ATMs or by mailing the Original Check to the Credit Union: NASA Federal Credit Union, P.O. Box 1588, Bowie, MD 20717-1588.

f. Acceptance and Rejection of Check Images. Check Images are generally posted to your account the same day we accept them for deposit to your account (but we may delay posting in certain circumstances). A Check Image is accepted by us for deposit to your account when the Check Image transaction appears as “deposited” in your Deposit History in our eBranch electronic banking services. You are responsible to determine whether a Check Image has been accepted by us and deposited to your account by checking your Deposit History. We are not required to send you notice of acceptance. If a Check Image has a status of “pending,” “submitted,” or “held for review” in your Deposit History, the Check Image has not been accepted by us for deposit to your account. In our sole discretion, we may reject any Check Image. You agree that Check Images transmitted using the Service are not subject to the funds availability requirements of Federal Reserve Board Regulation CC. Availability of funds may vary and you may view availability timing for mobile deposits online. When we delay the availability of a deposit, the length of the delay is determined by counting the business days from the date of your deposit. For the purpose of this service, every day is a business day, except Saturday, Sunday, Federal and Credit Union Holidays.

We reserve the right to impose limits on the amounts or the number of deposits you transmit using the Services, and to modify such limits from time to time without any prior notice to you.

g. Retention and Disposal of Original Checks. After we accept a Check Image for deposit, you will mark each Original Check “processed.” You will retain each Original Check in a secure location for 45 days or for any longer period of time during which any dispute concerning such Original Check may exist (or for any longer period we notify you of). Upon our request at anytime or from time to time, you will deliver to us within one day all Original Checks in your possession. You will be responsible if any person receives presentment or return of, or otherwise is charged for, the Original Check or a paper or electronic representation of the Original Check such that the person will be asked to make a payment based on an Original Check that it already has paid. To reduce the risk of a second presentment, you will use a commercially reasonable method (e.g., shredding) to destroy Original Checks promptly after your retention period has expired (subject to your obligation to retain an Original Check for any longer period of time during which any dispute concerning such Original Check may exist, or for any longer period we notify you of). You acknowledge that the Check Image thereafter will be the sole evidence of the Original Check. You will notify us immediately by telephone with written confirmation if you learn of any loss or theft of Original Checks.

h. Duplicate Presentment Return Checks and Corrections. You acknowledge that if Check Images are dishonored and returned unpaid for any reason, including but not limited to duplicate presentment, we may charge back the Check Image to your account. We may correct the amount of any deposit by debiting or crediting your account(s) within a reasonable time after discovery of an error. Applicable fees will apply. Please refer to our Schedule of Fees. You will cooperate with us to investigate unusual transactions or poor quality transmissions. An image of a check submitted for deposit to the Credit Union using the Services must be legible, as determined in the sole discretion of the Credit Union. Without limiting the foregoing, the image quality of the check must comply with the requirements established by the American National Standards Institute/ANSI, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Board and any other regulatory agencies, clearing house or associations. You agree that we will not be liable for any damages resulting from a check's poor image quality including those related to rejection for any reason it may be, or the delayed or improper crediting of a check as a result of the inaccurate information supplied by you regarding the check. All Check Images must meet any other requirements that we impose.

i. Your Representations Warranties and Covenants. You warrant that you will only transmit Check Images that are acceptable for deposit and that you have handled the Original Checks in accordance with applicable laws, rules and regulations. For Consumer Accounts: you represent that you have duly executed and delivered this Agreement. For Business Accounts: you represent that you have taken all necessary action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement. For both Consumer Accounts and Business Accounts: with respect to each Check Image, you represent, warrant and agree that:

- Each Check Image transmitted to us is a true and accurate rendition of the front and back of the Original Check, without any alteration, and the drawer of the Original Check has no defense against payment of the Original Check;
- The person on whose account the Original Check is drawn authorized the issuance of the Original Check in the amount stated on the Original Check and to the payee stated on the Original Check;
- You are authorized to enforce each Original Check or are authorized to obtain payment of each Original Check on behalf of a person entitled to enforce such Original Check;
- You will not deposit or otherwise endorse to a third party the Original Check and no person will receive a transfer, presentment, or return of, or otherwise be charged for, the item (either the Original Check, or a paper or electronic representation of the Original Check) such that the person will be asked to make payment based on an item it has already paid; and
- You make to the Credit Union all representations and warranties that the Credit Union makes or is deemed to make to any party pursuant to law, regulation or clearinghouse rule, including, without limitation, all warranties as defined in the Check Clearing for the 21st Century Act made by the Reverting and Truncating Credit Union.

j. Privacy and Security. Any security procedures required in connection with the Remote Deposit Service are strictly confidential. You will ensure the safety and integrity of deposited items from the time of receipt until the time of destruction of the Original Checks. You will take reasonable measures to safeguard your computer systems or Mobile Devices. At our request, you will perform a security assessment and/or review with Credit Union. If warranted in Credit Union's reasonable judgment, Credit Union reserves the right to monitor you, and you agree to cooperate with Credit Union to permit such monitoring, to confirm that you have satisfied your obligations. You are responsible for keeping all users' names and passwords secret and confidential, and for any communications or transactions that are made using your user names and passwords and any other obligation which may result from such use. You are responsible for requesting a new user name and password if you believe that any of your user names or passwords have been stolen or might otherwise be misused. You shall take appropriate actions to address incidents of unauthorized access to information concerning Original Checks and Check Images maintained by you, including notifying Credit Union as soon as possible of any such incident and fully informing Credit Union of the details of any such incident. You will report any breach of confidentiality promptly to Credit Union. See the “Notices” section of our eBranch Online Banking Service Agreement.

k. Securing Images on Mobile Devices. Check Images captured using your Mobile Device are stored on the Mobile Device only until the associated deposit has been successfully transmitted to us. You agree to promptly complete each transmission. In the event that you are unable to promptly complete the transmission, you will ensure that your Mobile Device remains securely in your possession until the transmission has been completed or delete the Check Image from the Mobile Device.

l. Fees. You agree to pay for Remote Deposit Services in accordance with our current Schedule of Fees, as amended from time to time (see the “Fees” section in our eBranch Online Banking Service Agreement).

m. Business Accounts. The following additional terms and conditions apply to Remote Deposit Service provided to members holding Business Account(s).

- You will limit access to the Remote Deposit Service and the Original Checks to your employees involved in the submission of Check Images to the Credit Union. You will ensure that none of these employees are a national of a designated blocked country or “Specially Designated National,” “Blocked Entity,” “Specially Designated Terrorist,” “Specially Designated Narcotics Trafficker,” or “Foreign Terrorist Organization” as defined by the United States Office of Foreign Assets Control.

Information that will help you make this determination is located at <http://www.treas.gov/offices/enforcement/ofac/>. Security procedures required in connection with the Remote Deposit Service will be disclosed only to those of your employees and agents who are required to know them.

- You will adhere to all privacy and data protection laws and regulations applicable to you and/or the Credit Union with respect to gathering, processing, storing, using and disposing of non-public personal information of consumers. Your information security program shall be designed to and implemented so as to ensure the security and confidentiality of such information, protect against any anticipated threats or hazards to the security or integrity of such information, protect against unauthorized access to or use of such information that could result in substantial harm or inconvenience to any consumer, and ensure the proper disposal of such information.

You agree from time to time, upon our request, to provide the Credit Union with current financial statements showing your financial condition, assets, liabilities and stockholder's equity and your current income and surplus and such other information regarding your financial condition, your business and your employees as we may reasonably request. We may monitor your compliance with this Agreement and you will cooperate with us. You agree to make your staff available for reasonable training at Credit Union's request. You will tell us immediately of any change of your address or any adverse change to your financial condition.
